Poll 'guarantee': Siddu declares 3.75% DA hike for employees

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AHEAD of Lok Sabha elections, the state government on Tuesday increased the Dearness Allowance (DA) for its employees from 38.75% to 42.5% on their basic pay.

"This will have an additional financial implication of Rs 1792.71 crore per year," says a statement from the Chief Minister's Office.

The DA hike will be effective from January 1. The government hiked the DA in October last from 35% to 38.75%. It will be applicable to all pensioners, family pensioners and those getting pension and family pension from state accumulated funds. It will also be applicable to those drawing UGC/AICTE/ICAR pay scale pensions.

The statement said the DA hike is also applicable for state and zilla panchayat full-time employees, employees and pensioners of aided institutions and universities.

Over Rs 80,000 crore will go towards government employees' salaries and pensions. The state government employees' association has been seeking implementation of the Seventh Pay Commission's recommendations. If the recommendations are implemented, the government has to spend an additional Rs 15,000 crore to Rs 20,000 crore annually.

Recently, the Centre approved a proposal to increase DA for its employees and pensioners by 4%.

Khattar makes way for Saini as new Haryana CM

Alliance with JJP collapses; trust vote today

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

NAYAB Singh Saini was on Tuesday sworn in as the new chief minister of Haryana, hours after the Jannayak Janata Party (JJP) walked out of the ruling coalition led by BJP's Manohar Lal Khattar.

It gave the BJP a shot at spring cleaning ahead of the general elections, as the uncharismatic Khattar, 69, made way for his loyalist Saini, 54, who is an OBC leader.

Despite the coalition's collapse, Saini claims he has the support of seven Independents. "We have asked the Speaker to conduct the floor test tomorrow as we have support of 48 MLAs," he said.

Saini represents Kurukshetra in Parliament and was named the Haryana BJP president in October last year. His appointment as CM is meant to deflect anti-incumbency against Khattar, who ruled Haryana for nine-and-a-half years.

Sainis constitute around 8% of the total population in Haryana. The community is influential in Haryana's north, including districts like Ambala, Kurukshetra and Hisar.

The coalition collapsed as the JJP chief and outgoing deputy chief minister Dushyant Chautala demanded that his party be alloted two of Haryana's 10 Lok Sabha seats. The constituencies his party was intent on contesting from were Hisar and Bhiwani-Mahendragarh. Dushyant had won the Hisar Lok Sabha in 2014. Just two days ago, BJP's Hisar MP Brijendra Singh resigned from the party as he anticipated that his seat would go to the JJP.

The JJP is a breakaway faction of the Indian National Lok Dal. It appears to be in trouble as five JJP MLAs stayed away from a legislative party meeting in Delhi. These lawmakers are likely to form a breakaway group and could support BJP.

As for Khattar, he could get a Lok Sabha ticket from Karnal. And sitting Karnal MP Sanjay Bhatia could be appointed the new Haryana BJP president, sources said.

Manufacturing drags IIP growth to 3.8% in Jan

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

INDIA'S industrial output growth, as measured by the Index of Industrial Production (IIP), slowed to 3.8% in January this year from 4.2% in December 2023 owing to poor show by the manufacturing sector. According to government data released on Tuesday, the manufacturing sector grew only 3.2% in January compared with 4.5% in December 2023.

The data also show that the December IIP was revised upwards to 4.2% following a revision of core sector growth to 4.9% from 3.8%.

The eight core industries are coal, crude oil, natural gas, refinery products, fertilisers, steel, cement, and electricity. These sectors constitute 40% of the IIP and serve as a key indicator to industrial growth trends. In January 2023, industrial output had grown 5.8%.

In January this year, mining and electricity production rose 5.9% and 5.6%, respectively, compared with 5.2% and 1.2% in December 2023.

According to Aditi Nayar, chief economist of ICRA, the IIP growth is likely to remain at 3-4% in February.

Meanwhile, the retail inflation, also known as consumer-price-based inflation (CPI), remained unchanged at 5.09% in February this year compared to 5.1% in January. It was recorded at 6.44% in the same month of the previous year.

Food inflation, which constitutes as much as 45.9% of the CPI basket, is still on the higher side as it came in at 8.66% in February compared with 8.3% in the previous month. Last year, it was recorded at 5.95%, data showed.

"The key risk to inflation outlook remains from food prices which have been volatile, due to successive supply-side shocks," said Guara Sen Gupta, economist at the IDFC First Bank.

After the crash, the jet caught fire and there was an explosion, which triggered panic in the vicinity. Local residents immediately alerted the fire brigade and the blaze was brought under control

First-ever crash of Tejas fighter jet in Jaisalmer, pilot safe

RAJESH ASNANI & MAYANK SINGH @ Jaipur / New Delhi

IN the first such incident since its maiden test flight in 2001, a Tejas light combat aircraft (LCA) of the Indian Air Force crashed near a residential colony in Jaisalmer around 2 pm on Tuesday during an operational training sortie. The pilot successfully ejected from the aircraft before the crash. There were no casualties. A court of inquiry has been ordered to ascertain the cause of the accident, the Indian Air Force said.

The accident happened when the indigenously built fighter jet was returning to the Jaisalmer air base after taking part in the Bharat Shakti military exercise in Pokhran, which was witnessed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi and top military brass. Jaisalmer is roughly 100 km away from the exercise venue in Pokhran.

Sources said the aircraft crashed into a five-room hostel for the Bhil community in Jawahar Nagar near Jaisalmer. There were three students in the hostel compound at the time of the crash but they were unhurt as the fighter jet damaged one of the rooms.

LCA Tejas, which took to the air on January 4, 2001 holds significance for the IAF as it is set to replace the ageing squadrons of MiG fighter jets and become the mainstay of the force in the coming years. The IAF has a sanctioned strength of 42 combat squadrons but it has come down to around 30. A squadron comprises 16-18 aircraft.

Currently, the IAF has two operational Tejas squadrons. The first IAF Squadron to induct the Tejas was No 45 Squadron, the Flying Daggers, in July 2016. Flying Bullets, raised in 2020, is the second Squadron.

Manufactured by state-run Hindustan Aeronautics, the aircraft is a potent platform for air combat and air support missions. Reconnaissance and anti-ship operations are its secondary roles.

In February 2021, the Cabinet Committee on Security approved procurement of 73 LCA Tejas Mk-1A fighter aircraft and 10 LCA Tejas Mk-1 Trainer aircraft at a cost of ₹45,696 crore. In November 2023, the Defence Acquisition Council cleared the purchase of an additional 97 LCA-Mk 1As at a cost of ₹65,000 crore.

The LCA Mk-1A will have updated avionics — Active Electronically Steered Radar, updated Electronic Warfare suite, and a Beyond Visual Range missile capability. The new variant will be capable of firing a number of weapons from increased stand-off ranges. Once this order is completed in the stipulated 15 years, IAF will have 40 LCA in initial configuration, over 180 LCA Mark-1A and at least 120 LCA Mark-2 planes.

SC stays K'taka board exams for classes 5, 8, 9

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday stayed the board examinations for students of classes 5, 8 and 9 of state syllabus schools in Karnataka.

A two-judge bench headed by Justice Bela M Trivedi and comprising Justice Pankaj Mithal passed the order after hearing an appeal by the Registered Unaided Private Schools' Management Association (RUPSMA) of Karnataka against the Karnataka government.

RUPSMA filed the appeal in the top court against an order of a division bench of the High Court of Karnataka which had allowed the Karnataka government to hold board examinations in schools affiliated to the Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board.

"The said examinations held pursuant to the notification deemed illegal by the single-judge should not have been held, affecting the exam system and the students' career. Needless to clarify that the exams should not be proceeded further," the bench said.

The high court's division bench stayed a March 6 order of the single-judge staying the board examinations. Senior advocate Devadatt Kamat, who appeared for the Karnataka government, argued before the top court that the exams are not board examinations in the strictest sense, but only a 'summative assessment'. Court gives life terms to 10 for Hapur mob lynching of trader

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

A local court in Hapur on Tuesday sentenced 10 accused to life imprisonment for lynching a meat trader to death over rumours of cow slaughter. Qasim Qureshi, 45, was killed by the mob in June 2018. Another victim, Samaydeen, 62, was injured in the mob attack.

The victims had not sought death penalty for the convicts saying they did not have any personal enmity against them.

The court convicted the accused persons under Sections 302 (murder), 149 (unlawful assembly), 307 (attempt to murder), 149, 147 (rioting), 148 (being armed with a deadly weapon) and 153A (promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion) of the Indian Penal Code. The court also slapped a penalty of ₹58,000 on each of the convicts.

In 2018, Samaydeen had moved the Supreme Court seeking a thorough probe into the attack after the police sought to give a motorcycle accident angle to the lynching, in its first information report.

The SC then directed the Inspector General of Police, Meerut range, to ensure the probe is in consonance with the guidelines issued in the Tehseen Poonawallah case judgment relating to mob lynching and hate crimes.

The crime had created a nationwide buzz after pictures purportedly showing the victims being dragged on the ground in the presence of cops went viral on social media.

Later, the UP police posted an apology.

Mantri Lad's 'gyaan' to women: Don't watch news

MALLIKARJUN HIREMATH @ Dharwad

District in-charge minister Santosh Lad has appealed to women not to watch news channels, but to enjoy tele-serials.

The reason for this appeal, according to Lad, is the alleged fake publicity by the BJP-led Union government about its welfare schemes, which he feels will influence women to vote in favour of the ruling alliance in the Lok Sabha elections.

Lad made this appeal at a function of beneficiaries of the Siddaramaiah government's guarantee schemes held at Kundgol recently.

The minister alleged that the Union government has launched a mega publicity campaign highlighting its achievements in TV channels and this will continue till the LS elections end.

In the last 10 years, the Centre spent more than Rs 6,000 crore on the publicity campaign.

Lad said if the BJP believes in its achievements, then it should be confident of going to polls without the mega publicity campaign. During elections, the saffron party raises religious and other sensitive issues for political gains.

"We are not against publicity campaign. But let it be on development issues. Where are those promised jobs? What about bringing back black money and price rise?" Lad said. P9

■ BWSSB data reveals that close to Rs 10 crore fine has been collected for not installing RWH units ■ STPs mandatory, treated water must be accounted for

Thirsty city in no mood to harvest rainwater

Only 3,352 establishments add RWH systems in the last 8 months in city

PURAN CHOUDHARY @ Bengaluru

WHILE the Graden City stares at a water-less summer and the State Government struggles to meet the needs of the residents, Rain Water Harvesting (RWH), which can address 30-40% of the problem, is going unnoticed.

The Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) data over the last six months revealed that close to Rs 10 crore have been collected as fine for not installing RWH systems in residential and commercial establishments across the city. In 2021, a law was enacted making it mandatory for buildings built on sites measuring 60×40 ft and more to harvest and utilise rainwater for internal purposes. However, to date, only 1,96,538 establishments have installed RWH systems. Building owners often think of it as an additional cost, delaying the process, and choose to rather pay a fine than make a one-time investment. Experts also opined that the unavailability of government subsidies has made RWH installation unappealing to many.

A closer look at the data showed that as of July 2023, 1,93,186 establishments had installed the RWH systems on their rooftops, and in the last eight months, there has been an addition of 3,352 more units only. This shows that there has not been enough awareness on the method and leniency on the part of BWSSB to engage with the citizens on the benefits of harvesting rainwater.

Water sustainability researcher and urban planner S Vishwanath said that the quality of data provided by the BWSSB needs an overhaul. There is no distinction between commercial and residential buildings, and no clarity on how many are functional as of today, saving and using the stored water appropriately also needs to be highlighted, he felt. "BWSSB needs to conduct a new audit and deal with the issue head-on. If all homes in Bengaluru have an RWH system in conjunction with reviving and maintaining the city lakes, the severity of the problem can be brought down," he elaborated, emphasising that the fine should be increased given that citizens are failing to comply.

Some environmentalists also hinted that many times BWSSB fines only individuals and gives clean chit to residential blocks. Companies selling RWH parts alleged that many societies install hoax, unscientific systems to avoid penalties.

According to BWSSB data, the highest amount of fine collected was in September - a fine of Rs 2,00,79,662 and 38,412 entities were fined.

K'taka, Punjab, Haryana lead the way in used water management: Report

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A Council on Energy, Environment and Water (CEEW) study shows that Karnataka, Punjab, and Haryana lead in used water management. Further, Bengaluru and Surat in Gujarat top the list.The study titled 'Enabling Circular Economy in Used Water Management in India - A Municipal Index for Assessing Urban Local Bodies' Performance' released on March 12 was made based on 2021 data.

The report stated that only 28% of India's 72,000 million litres of used water is treated. With rising urban water demand and dwindling groundwater table, urban local bodies (ULBs) across the country need to scale up the treatment and reuse of used water for non-potable purposes. Lack of financial planning and investments for used water management is a concern in 90% of ULBs, the report added.

The CEEW report created a Municipal Used Water Management (MUWM) Index, which focused on 503 ULBs in 10 states—Andhra Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Gujarat, Haryana, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Punjab, Rajasthan, and West Bengal—that have adopted treated used water reuse policies. Through the index they were ranked on five themes: finance, infrastructure, efficiency, governance, and data and information.

Surat Municipal Corporation and BBMP emerged as outstanding performers in the CEEW index, with dedicated action plans for used water management in areas including infrastructure works.

At the state level, Haryana and Karnataka take the lead, with Punjab and Rajasthan following closely, said the report. The CEEW also said that the majority of ULBs needed to adopt a more comprehensive approach to used water management.

"Though Karnataka emerges as a front-runner, it is critical to note that there is a long road to go with no state achieving a full score. As Bengaluru runs out of freshwater, reusing used water to its full potential for non-potable purposes will be key in the future," said Nitin Bassi, senior programme lead, CEEW.

He added that the study area in Bengaluru focused on the ULB limits, where the Cauvery water connection was supplied, and not in the areas listed in the 110 villages.

BWSSB: Use recycled water for construction

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING the water scarcity and harsh summer ahead, BWSSB Chairman Dr V Ram Prasath Manohar held a meeting with the building owners who are constructing building above 20,000 sqft, and the Board's major customers who have got large water connections, to explain the water situation in the city. The board also gave details of the steps taken so far, to adequately manage the crisis.

"Currently, Bengaluru is facing a water problem, The city has a population of 1.40 crore, and providing water in such a crisis is a challenge, the board is taking all kinds of measures to provide water necessary for the residents," explained Manohar.

He also said that it is mandatory to use recycled environment-friendly water for the propose of construction work for building owners who are constructing building above 20,000 ft area in the city.

All the building owners who attended the meeting agreed to the mandate. The building owner also responded positively to the Chairman's request to give the tube wells in the building to the board for the purpose of drinking water supply in case of emergency.

Water supply reduced by 20%

Addressing the major customers of the Board, Manohar said that due to the crisis, it has been decided that water supply to major customers will be cut by 20 per cent, from March 15. Cauvery water being supplied by the board will be cut gradually.

He said that there are 3 lakh people who have got large water connection in the city, and they should join hands with the board in this decision, taken in the interest of 1.40 crore people.

"Water supply will be reduced by 20% from now on," added the chairman, and instructed that many institutions having large water connections including Railways, HAL, Air Force, Defense, CRPF, Biocon, Nimhans, Victoria Hospital should create awareness on the importance of water conservation in their campuses.

He also stated that once Kaveri-5th phase project will be implemented by May 15, the stressful situation will be eased.

Orders for swimming pools

The BWSSB also issued orders prohibiting usage of drinking water in swimming pools. The chairman also instructed the authorities to issue an order to stop the functioning of all swimming pools in the city. Anyone violating the orders will be fined Rs 5,000 under section 109 of BWSSB Act. The order, however, is not applicable to pools conducting state or national level swimming competitions.

Govt revises STP order, still mandatory

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE state government on Tuesday reiterated its 2016 order, making it mandatory for all residential, commercial and educational institutions to set up sewage treatment plants (STPs) and ensure that usage of treated water is accounted for.

Unlike in its earlier order, the GO issued on Tuesday has separate guidelines for areas connected with BWSSB sewer lines and those without. Based on the connection, the guidelines mandating the number of units and built area has been revised. Further, in the order, issued by the Forest, Ecology and Environment Department, the government put on a note, stating, "Residential, commercial complexes, educational institutions, townships, area development projects which have already installed STPs prior to government notification may continue to operate or may discharge the sewage into the drainage system after obtaining prior written permission from BWSSB and KSPCB."

The government has also revised the area and number of residential units to make STP mandatory.

The number of residential units in apartments and housing projects has been increased from 20 to 120 and above, or those generating 80KLD of sewage in areas with sewer lines and STPs of local bodies.

In case of commercial complexes, the built-up area has been revised from 2,000 sqm (that was notified in the 2016 government notification) to 5,000 sqm or generating 35 KLD sewage. For educational institutions, the government added an additional parameter of sewage generation above 35KLD.

In case of areas without sewer lines and without STP of local bodies, all residential group housing projects/ apartments with 20 units and above or with built-up area above 2,000 sqm should install STP.

Commercial establishments with built-up area of 2,000 sqm and above should install STP, educational institutions with/ without hostels having built-up area of 5,000 sqm or above and townships/ area development projects with an area of 10 acres and above should have STPs. Environment Secretary BP Ravi said the order was issued after discussions with the government. It has been issued to ensure accountability and better management, he pointed out.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Even though family relationships are looking a bit dodgy, there is room for passion. Hence it may be very simple for you to turn potential conflicts into exciting and pleasurable situations. Accomplish such Herculean emotional tasks with your normal Taurean aplomb.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
There is little change in your personal stars from yesterday, so don't expect too many interesting developments. On the other hand, you should appreciate the opportunity to carry on with tasks you've already begun, without any new hassles. And a relationship could continue to hit you in the pocket.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Your monetary situation still seems to be a determining factor, but rather than concentrate on the minutiae of finances it may be worth looking at the psychological dimension. You should always be aware of your deep need for material security and underlying fear of poverty.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Much depends on how you cope with provocative actions or statements by people in authority. The last thing you want to do is irritate someone unneces-sarily. If you've kept your cool until now, you should get through with a minimum of fuss or disruption.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your intuition is quite remarkable at the moment with the result that you have a much better idea of what is really going on than anyone else. All the better to deal with the questions raised by an important emotional tie, and to begin to heal an old scar.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Recent emotional tiffs have stirred up forgotten undercurrents. They have also made you see that partners are not going to let you off the hook so easily. However, you are adept at playing the games demanded by any relationship and will never be caught out. At least not unless you want to be!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The Sun is steadily moving towards a confrontation with Pluto, a celestial fact of no little significance for all you Scorpios. May I take this opportunity to advise you to be one hundred percent straight and open in all your dealings? Oh, and never bend the rules.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The combination of lunar emotion with Sagittarian energy is one which is bound to galvanise your soul. Overseas contacts and foreign travel are so well indicated that there can be no better way to use your time than to plan your next major expedition.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Although you may be in peak condition, the Moon has knocked the stuffing out of you emotionally in the past. Now you are facing entirely more routine considerations, the chief of which is money. You'll find that older partners and people you've known for a long time will be the most reliable.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The distant rumblings you hear over financial matters must make you realise that decisions cannot be delayed much longer. In a sense your dilemma is that even while the information you have to work with is still uncertain, firm action is required. Get partners on your side now and they won't be able to criticise you later.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Hold meetings and interviews by all means, and do continue to discuss personal matters. However, please understand that all that can take place now is a frank exchange of views, with absolutely no require-ment to reach a firm settlement. That can come next week.

BJP in turmoil as Simha challenges new candidate for Mysuru-Kodagu

In Facebook live post, MP turns emotional, puts down Yaduveer

KARTHIK K K @ Mysuru

INTERNAL discord in the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has come to the forefront amid speculation surrounding the candidature for Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha constituency in the upcoming polls. Current BJP MP Pratap Simha has expressed his discontent over the party's purported plan to field a new face from the constituency, sparking tensions within party ranks.

Simha, a two-time MP, is visibly irked by the shadow falling on his candidature for the past two days. Though he has refrained from directly attacking party leaders and seniors opposing his candidacy, he has been expressing his frustration on various platforms.

He has utilised press meets and social media, with the support of organisations like the Vokkaliga Association, Madivala Community Association and Mysore Rakshana Vedike, to voice his grievances.

In a Facebook live session on Monday night, Simha became emotional as he highlighted the development work he has undertaken in Mysuru-Kodagu region over the past decade. He praised the people of Kodagu as "patriots" while criticizing those in the Mysuru region, labelling them "casteist" and suggesting that caste plays a significant role in local politics.

Speculation intensified on Tuesday with rumours suggesting that the BJP is considering fielding Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, the scion of the erstwhile Mysuru royal family, as its candidate. Simha expressed his frustration by taunting Yaduveer, questioning his involvement in grassroots politics and criticizing his perceived detachment from local issues.

In a mocking tone, Simha extended a welcome to Yaduveer Wadiyar, referring to him as the 'King' or 'Prince' who is attempting to enter politics. He sarcastically underlined that it would mean Yaduveer's emergence from his air-conditioned chambers to engage directly with the people, and activities like joining protests against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, visiting police stations during party workers' detentions, and addressing pressing local issues like the clearance of debris on Ring Road, suggesting these as essential endeavours for any political aspirant.

However, Simha's sharp words against Yaduveer did not sit well with some of his own party members. Former MLA and city BJP president L Nagendra urged Simha to refrain from disrespecting the Wadiyar family, while another BJP leader, Jaya Prakash, criticised Simha for his recent behaviour.

At a meeting with BJP leaders in the city, Simha defended his actions, stating that he was the only one with the courage to criticise Chief Minister Siddaramaiah. However, his remarks about "adjustment politics" and targeting senior party workers and local leaders did not go down well with some saffron party workers, who questioned his suitability as candidate.

As speculation continues to swirl, the decision regarding candidacy for the constituency remains uncertain, with tensions running high within the party.

Will Congress go for Urs' grandson if Yaduveer gets BJP ticket?

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

THE battle for the Mysuru-Kodagu Parliamentary seat may turn the pages of history if the BJP decides to replace the incumbent MP, Pratap Simha, with the scion of the erstwhile Mysuru Royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar for the upcoming Lok Sabha elections. In such an eventuality, the Congress may field Suraj Hegde, the grandson of former chief minister Devraj Urs from the constituency, informed sources told The New Indian Express.

Hegde is vice-president of Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC), vice-chairman of the Guarantee Implementation Authority, Karnataka, and a member of the Indian National Congress election screening committee for Maharashtra, Andhra Pradesh, Odisha, Goa, and Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

According to BJP sources, the party may drop Simha - a two-time MP- because of various reasons, including the controversy around the recent Parliament security breach.

"The Congress is waiting for the BJP to roll out its second list and if they announce Yaduveer's name from the Mysuru-Kodagu seat then they may field Hegde against him. The Congress has also been considering names of Vokkaliga candidates-- party spokesperson M Lakshmana and DCC president Vijaykumar for the Mysuru-Kodagu seat. Hegde's name was also on the list but he is said to have gained currency after Wadiyar's name cropped up from the other side," said sources. If Hegde contests against Yaduveer, it would bring back the reminiscences of a 35-year-old history, when the former's aunt and the daughter of Urs, Late Chandraprabha Urs won against the then scion of the erstwhile Mysuru royal family, Late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, who had contested on a BJP ticket in 1991 from the Mysore-Kodagu constituency. She had, however, lost the elections in 1994.

The Congress released its second list of 43 candidates on Tuesday for Assam, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttarakhand, and Daman & Diu.

The BJP's Central Election Committee (CEC) held its second meeting on Monday to decide on the second list of candidates for the 99 seats of Karnataka, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Telangana, and Chandigarh.

In some seats, challenges within BJP

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

AHEAD of the Lok Sabha polls, BJP leaders are finding it difficult to finalise candidates for a few Lok Sobha constituencies in Karnataka. Party leaders are in a dilemma as there is both strong support and opposition to certain candidates.

The Central Election Committee meeting on Monday night reportedly cleared over 20 seats, and has kept some on hold as there is a rift between party workers and leaders. On one side is a strong campaign by netizens and party workers to give the Mysuru-Kodagu ticket to sitting BJP MP Pratap Simha, while party leaders and others in Mysuru are in favour of 32-year-old Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, scion of the Wadiyar family.

In Udupi-Chikkamagaluru, there is strong opposition to sitting MP and Union Minister Shobha Karandlaje from BJP workers, who even launched a campaign 'Go back, Shobha'. Sources said her name was cleared, but if there is opposition, party leaders are keen to field her from Bengaluru North Lok Sabha constituency. Sitting MP DV Sadananda Gowda is also trying to get a ticket from Bengaluru North.

BJP MP from Uttara Kannada Ananthkumar Hegde is also likely to miss the ticket, though he has strong support from local BJP workers, sources said. "Party leaders in Delhi are not keen on giving a ticket to Dakshina Kannada MP Nalinkumar Kateel. If he is not given a ticket, there are chances of Hegde and Karandlaje not getting tickets from their seats either. The party high command is yet to decide on this," said party sources in Bengaluru.

Meanwhile, Leader of Opposition R Ashoka hinted that the BJP list for Karnataka may hold surprises, with the replacement of some MPs. He said the party high command has taken their opinion and the list is expected to be announced soon. They are expected to announce names for 28 Lok Sabha constituencies in two lists.

On some sitting MPs not contesting, Ashoka said a few of them had announced voluntary retirement. Party leaders also consider an MP's performance, caste combination and other factors, and considering all these, there could be changes. "Our party constantly keeps changing and gives opportunities for fresh faces, we are expecting surprise faces," he added.

At the CEC meeting, leaders also discussed their alliance with JDS. The BJP is likely to allow JDS candidates to contest from Mandya, Hassan and Kolar. It may be noted that recently, former CM and senior JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy said both JDS and BJP leaders are keen on giving a ticket to Dr CN Manjunath from Bengaluru Rural.

CONG TOO EXTENDED INVITE TO YADUVEER FOR LS ELECTIONS

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

EVEN as reports are doing the rounds of the scion of erstwhile Mysuru royal family, Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, contesting the Lok Sabha polls from the Mysuru-Kodagu constituency on a BJP ticket, it is said that Congress too has extended an invite to him to be the party candidate.

Though it is almost certain that BJP is fielding a new face from the Mysuru-Kodagu seat, the royal family has not come out in public to say whether Yaduveer would contest the election. It has now come to light that Congress, desperate for winnable candidates, had approached the young royal, who appeals to people across communities, to contest on a party ticket.

Highly placed sources said the party leadership made the offer a few weeks ago. "Neither Yaduveer nor Rajmata Pramoda Devi Wadiyar has responded yet," they added. Congress has good relations with the royal family as the previous scion, Srikanatadatta Narashimaraja Wadiyar, had contested from Congress and won four times, but lost once. He gave up the seat in 2009 and former minister AH Vishwanath won the Lok Sabha polls.

Congressmen are confident that the royal family will not seek an adventure by going with BJP as Srikanatadatta, when he contested on a BJP ticket, lost the election in 1991 against Congress candidate and Devaraj Urs' daughter Chandraprabha Urs as Dalits, Muslims and other oppressed sections did not shift their loyalties to the party.

The royal family has though kept itself away from politics even before the passing of Srikantadatta, it has maintained strong relations with politicians of all parties.

The state BJP unit had made a strong bid to change the mind of the royal family when it made Prime Minister Narendra Modi hold a meeting with Yaduveer and Pramoda Devi during his first visit to Mysuru.

Modi also had breakfast with the royals when he attended the Yoga Day celebrations in Mysuru a few years ago. Union Home Minister Amit Shah too had called on them in the run-up to the Assembly elections last year, sending feelers that BJP is warming up to the royal family.

It is said the party also tried to approach Yaduveer through his father-in-law Harshavardhan Singh of the Dungarpur royal family, who is a former Rajya Sabha member and BJP leader from Rajasthan.

BJP leaders believe that fielding Yaduveer would have a positive effect across Mysuru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Hassan as people from the region have an emotional attachment to the royal family. They feel Yaduveer can attract youth and educated masses towards the party, consolidating its hold in the Mysuru region, considered to be a stronghold of Congress.

We will not give a drop of water: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mysuru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Tuesday denied BJP charges that Karnataka is releasing water to Tamil Nadu. "The question of giving water to Tamil Nadu does not arise when there is no water for drinking purposes in Karnataka itself," he added.

He told reporters at Heggawadi that there is no water in state reservoirs and termed BJP charges baseless. "We will not give water even if the Centre directs or Tamil Nadu requests us for water," he asserted.

Siddaramaiah said the BJP government at the Centre issued a notification to implement the Citizenship (Amendment) Act (CAA) on Monday for political gains ahead of the Lok Sabha polls. Congress is against granting citizenship on religious grounds, he added.

The statement that BJP is looking for 400 seats in the Lok Sabha to change the Constitution was not made by any ordinary man, but by former Union minister Ananthkumar Hegde. BJP has made Hegde come out with this statement as it is the stand of that party. If not, BJP should have criticised Hegde's statement, he pointed out.

Siddaramaiah denied that he and former chief minister BS Yediyurappa had come to an understanding to deny a BJP ticket to incumbent Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha. "It is the decision of BJP if he is replaced. I have not told Yaduveer (Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar -- the scion of erstwhile Mysuru royal family) to contest on a BJP ticket. Whoever is the candidate, we want to win the Mysuru seat," he added.

Asked if his chief minister's position would be shaky if Pratap Sinmha is given a ticket, he shot back, "He was an MP twice, why would my position be shaky?"

Record of Rights, Tenancy, Crops to be Aadhaar-linked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Revenue Department announced two key initiatives to take the administration closer to people and make it more efficient and transparent. Updating land revenue records to reflect changes in property details will now be done automatically, while the department is also linking RTC (Record of Rights, Tenancy, and Crops) with Aadhaar to prevent fraudulent transactions.

Revenue Minister Krishna Byregowda on Tuesday told media persons that they have started linking RTCs with Aadhaar on a pilot basis. It will prevent fraudulent transactions, help provide government benefits directly through DBT and bring transparency to the system, he said.

Officials have initiated a process to link 19 lakh farmers' RTCs with Aadhaar. Of that, six lakh farmers were deceased, but their names continued to be in the land records, he said.

Village accountants have been directed to continue linking Aadhaar with RTC records even after the Lok Sabha polls are announced, he said. The officials would visit houses to do the job and even people also can visit the Revenue Department offices for the same.

Auto-mutation

The minister said entries in the mutation will be done automatically based on the information procured from banks, courts and other sources. Farmers do not have to visit revenue offices for this. This would help to farmers and officials save time as well as avoid middlemen, he said.

Of the 14,21,116 mutations in the last six months, 72% were auto-mutations and the remaining were done in the old system.

The minister said one sub-registrar office in a revenue district will be open on Sundays.

JAYAPRAKASH HEGDE ENTERS CONG FOLD

DCM DK Shivakumar welcomes State Backward Classes Commission former chairman Jayaprakash Hegde into the Congress in Bengaluru on Tuesday | EXPRESS

FORMER chairman of the State Backward Classes Commission Jayaprakash Hegde on Tuesday joined the Congress in the presence of DyCM and state Congress president DK Shivakumar, Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara, and other leaders. He is likely to be the party candidate from Udupi-Chikkamagaluru Lok Sabha seat.

Addressing party leaders after joining the Congress, Hegde said they will work together for the candidate decided by the party.

Hegde's tenure as Commission chairman ended on February 28, the day he submitted the Socio-Economic Survey, also known as caste census, to the state government. He was appointed chairman when the BJP was in power in the state. Hegde said it is better to discuss the report after knowing its details, instead of doing so without even knowing its contents.

Some sections not happy

Though many in Congress are celebrating Jayaprakash Hegde joining the party from BJP, a section within the organisation expressed concern that the man, who let down Congress by joining BJP, has been inducted.

District level Congress leaders, who met state Congress president DK Shivakumar and expressed their concerns, told TNIE that his entry should not demoralise party workers as he had worked against Congress after joining BJP in 2016-17 during local body elections. His falling out with senior AICC leader late Oscar Fernandes too had not sent right signals among party cadres, they said.

The Chikkamagaluru unit of Congress worked unitedly and won all the five Assembly segments, but Hegde's entry should not go against this. Some senior Congress leaders said they don't want to share details of the discussion with Shivakumar.

Modi's 10-yr rule a trailer, picture abhi..., says Fadnavis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mangaluru

MAHARASHTRA Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis on Tuesday said the 2024 Lok Sabha election is crucial for the country's security and future and asked BJP cadres to seek votes for Bharat instead of the BJP. "This election, we are not voting for the BJP, but for Bharat. We are voting for Bharat's safety and future," he said while addressing BJP booth-level workers at Sanghaniketan here.

He termed the 2024 LS election as historical. "The 10-year rule of the Narendra Modi government was just a trailer. Picture abhi baaki hai. There were a lot of inequalities in the country which Modi has set right in the past 10 years. India has become the fifth largest economy from the 11th largest in the past decade. Now, we are on the cusp of becoming the third largest economy. He has established a new delivery system wherein citizens need not pay even a paise to avail government benefits," he said. Fadnavis said Modi has been able to pull out 25 crore people from poverty.

Intruder enters Metro viaduct, disrupts train ops for 27 mins

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AN intruder who entered the elevated viaduct (bridge like structure where rail tracks are laid) between Pattanagere and Jnanabharathi Metro stations on Metro's Purple Line, to commit a theft, which forced a partial disruption of Metro train operations for 27 minutes on Tuesday afternoon.

Train services between Mysuru Road and Challaghatta Metro stations were disrupted from 3 pm to 3.27 pm, as BMRCL immediately switched off the electrical power supply. Train operations between Mysuru Road and Kadugodi (Whitefield) stations were unaffected.

AS Shankar, Executive Director, Operations and Maintenance, told TNIE, "We had put in place a patrolling team from our security team on our railway tracks following six incidents of unauthorised individuals entering railway tracks in the last two months to commit theft. They attempt to steal the signalling cables which have copper in them. This can affect operations. One of our patrolling staff spotted him. Power supply was switched off immediately so that our security team could rush and nab him. However, he managed to escape, possibly by sliding down a tree."

Copper wires found at the spot after the thief fled

BMRCL MD Maheshwar Rao said, "It is suspected he entered the viaduct by removing the grating provided at the manhole installed in the viaduct area for draining excess water and maintenance."

Shankar added that three such instances of intruders walking on the viaduct have been reported in the same stretch in the past and also on the viaducts of Mahalakshmi Layout and Rajaji Nagar metro stations. "They had opened the manholes in the viaduct area to steal the copper in the cables. This made us constitute the patrolling team," he added.

Realtor stabbed over 15 times, body found in abandoned car near Bagalur

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A 55-year-old realtor, Krishna Yadav, was found murdered in his car in Yelahanka police limits on Tuesday morning. He was stabbed over 15 times. The incident came to light after a passerby noticed the victim lying in a pool of blood. Krishna, who was a resident of Maruthinagar, Yelahanka, stepped out of his home on Monday evening for a business deal, but never returned home. His car was found near the Bagalur cross on the KIA road.

Krishna, a native of Andhra Pradesh was staying with his family in Bengaluru, and had an office near Bagalur Cross. On Monday evening, at around 6.30 pm, he left home in his white car. However, he did not return. His body was found in his car, on Tuesday morning.

"On Monday evening, Krishna had come to his office with his friends, and had consumed alcohol. He stayed back after his friends left. The accused is suspected to be someone known to the realtor. Krishna's body was found in the passenger seat of his car. It is not clear if the accused drove his car and abandoned it after killing Yadav. CCTV footage is being checked to get more information about the accused," said an officer part of the investigation.

The murder might have been a result of his professional rivalry. The body was shifted to Ambedkar Hospital mortuary, for postmortem, where it was revealed that he was stabbed over 15 times. The accused have taken away the murder weapon with them. The Yelahanka police have registered a case of murder and are further investigating.

City saw 174 fatal accidents in 2 months

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

"BENGALURU witnessed 174 fatal accidents in the first two months of the year. Out of which 10 per cent of the total fatalities were at Devanahalli, due to the high speeds on the elevated corridor, followed by Kengeri due to the NICE road," Joint Commissioner of Police (Traffic) MN Anucheth said.

Last year, among the 914 fatalities, 74 per cent were two-wheeler riders, while 21 per cent were pedestrians. Alarmingly, 60 percent of those affected were 60 years or above. The city currently has the largest number of privately owned vehicles in India, with a traffic density of 827 vehicles per 1,000. The number of vehicles are growing exponentially, said the officer, while addressing the road safety campaign organised by Bangalore Chamber of Industry and Commerce (BCIC) on Monday.

"We are currently working on implementing advanced technologies such as AI, Big Data and IOT based solutions, to optimise traffic flow, reduce congestion and enhance safety," Anucheth said.

"Our primary goal is to understand the dynamics of congestion – its causes, locations, and mitigation strategies. To achieve this, we've developed ASTraM (Actionable Intelligence for Sustainable Traffic Management), a system that harnesses data from diverse sources to monitor congestion patterns. By categorizing traffic flow into moderate, high, and severe, we can promptly respond to the situation. Leveraging our advancements, we can now disseminate real-time road conditions via map-based services, and social media platforms to mitigate traffic congestion," he added.

BOARD EXAMS

SC: Order of single judge patently illegal

"WE can say that the students are not required to pass," he said. He made it clear to the apex court that the state government's scheme has been devised in such a way that no student can be detained based on these examinations. The students will be assessed only for their educational qualification. After hearing his submissions, the judges asked Kamat, what is the purpose of these exams and what would they serve? Kamat stated that the exams prepare students academically and also ensure that they would be able to face the actual board exams later.

Kamat pointed out that the single-judge's order staying the exams was patently illegal as the state is the competent authority to conduct summative assessments, which is a policy matter of the government.Meanwhile, in a statement the KSEAB said the board examinations to be held for classes 5, 8 and 9 from March 13 to 16 have been postponed until further notice.

Allow Kerala to borrow more funds: Top court to Centre

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'Puram

IN a major victory for the Kerala Government, the Supreme Court on Tuesday asked the Central government to relax the borrowing limit for the state as a one-time measure. The court's direction to the Union Government to consider a one time package for Kerala came after the state appraised that it was in dire need of funds owing to the financial year end.

The court told the central government that it can be slightly liberal by relaxing the norms as a special case for the current financial year before March 31. It can be subject to more rigid conditions in the next financial year. The central government has to convey its decision on Wednesday.When the case was taken up for hearing, Kerala's counsel Kapil Sibal informed the court that the second round of talks between the central and state governments failed. The talk was held as per the direction of the court at the previous hearing to settle differences over the upper ceiling on market borrowings. During the talks the state had sought permission for additional borrowing to the tune of 19370. Additional Solicitor General N Venkataraman who represented the union government initially raised objections against relaxation to the state. A special concession for the state would be inappropriate as some other states had agreed to the centre's decline letter for relaxations.

He also raised concern over the cumulative effect on the state finances if a relaxation is given.During the previous hearing on 6 March, the court had directed the centre to give sanction for additional borrowings worth Rs 13,608 crore. The centre withheld the sanction citing the court case and said it would be released only if the state withdrew the suit.

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Haveri

AS many as 81 people from various parts of Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh were arrested by the Haveri police, a day after protesters went on a rampage and caused damage to government property in Byadgi town of Haveri.

On Monday, a group of farmers who were protesting over chilli price fall at the Byadgi international market turned violent and torched several vehicles and the office of APMC. In total, eight government vehicles, including a fire tender and three two-wheelers were torched. The protesters also looted two shops and decamped with cash of Rs 15 lakh. A separate complaint in this regard has been registered.

The police said that four FIRs have been registered against the rioting farmers in Byadgi.

The police, fire, APMC, and journalist association have lodged FIRs after the injuries and damage to the vehicles. The Byadgi town was fortified with additional police force a day after the incident. In total, 700 police force with seven battalions each from KSRP and DAR are now camping in the town. Two hundred additional police forces from neighbouring districts have also been called for protection.

Soon after the incident, the police started gathering evidence on the rioters and those involved in stone pelting, robbing, recording, and cheering the crowd involved in damage. So far, 81 people from Haveri, Ballari, Raichur, and Andhra Pradesh have been arrested. Sources in the police said that the arrests could cross 500 in the next few days.

A government hostel has been converted into a temporary jail and depending on the availability of slots, the arrested will be shifted to Ballari, Belagavi, and Bengaluru jails. District Minister Shivanand Patil will be visiting Haveri on Wednesday. He will call on the injured police and firemen who are being treated at Haveri government hospital. The minister will also visit the APMC market in Byadgi and interact with the members of the traders' association. Earlier in the day, Haveri DC Raghunandan Murthy and SP Anshu Kumar held a meeting with the APMC members and traders.

They are worried that the people will come to know the truth through news channels. Hence, the appeal to the people, especially women, not to watch news. SC TO THE RESCUE: ELECTORAL BONDS DATA HERE AND NOW

THE Supreme Court must be commended for dismissing an application by the State Bank of India seeking time till June 30 to furnish details of the buyers and beneficiaries of electoral bonds. The five-judge bench had earlier struck down the electoral bonds scheme as 'unconstitutional'. It had rightly held that the anonymity of donors and their political party beneficiaries impinged on the public's right to information. The judges also directed the SBI to come forth with the data by March 6, and called on the Election Commission to publish it on its website by March 13. The SBI's argument that accessing the data was "time-consuming" due to anonymity protocols surrounding the donors was held to be untenable—its acceptance would have had the effect of negating the original order, whose essence was that crucial information relating to election financing cannot be kept from the public till after the Lok Sabha polls.

The SBI was expected to act as a neutral vendor for the scheme. However, its conduct has raised serious doubts about the bank's adherence to well-defined norms of financial propriety. In all, ₹16,518 crore was collected through 22,217 bonds. In a digital world, the information of who purchased these bonds and their face value can be accessed by the bank with the press of a button. Ditto for the parties that encashed them. The bank's plea that it would take four months to match the two silos is risible. The top court, questioning the delay in putting the data together, rightly asked the SBI at the March 11 hearing: "In the last 26 days...what steps have been taken by you?"

The electoral bond scheme was introduced in 2018 by the government ostensibly to root out black money and "ensure clean, tax-paid money is coming into the system of political funding through proper banking channels". The serial legislator-swapping and pulling down of governments India has witnessed in the years since do not exactly conform to any expectation of the grey economy of politics having been shuttered down. What then was the scheme meant to achieve? Perhaps it was the old 'white' component that went into fulfilling formal needs—'legal' ones like acquiring real estate, setting up offices et al—itself a sizeable component. One big concern was the possibility of quid pro quo. Anecdotal data shows an uncanny sequence between threats of raids and prosecution by central agencies and corporate donations. The cure, in short, was proving to be another malaise in more than one way.

ODISHA KIDNEY DISEASE SPURT NEEDS CLOSE LOOK

FOUR years back, the Regional Medical Research Laboratory in Bhubaneswar, a top facility under the Indian Council of Medical Research, carried out a study in Cuttack district's Narasinghpur block in Odisha to understand the consistent pattern of chronic kidney diseases (CKD) burden among the local population. From a sample of 2,978 people who were screened, at least 14 percent were diagnosed with kidney disease. This belt in Odisha by the Mahanadi river has had a high incidence of CKD for more than a decade. However, what has now run the alarm bells is that neighbouring Dhenkanal district could be emerging as another hotspot.

The study looked at over 4,000 kidney patients from the last seven years to find that half of them belonged to Dhenkanal district alone. In terms of the non-communicable disease burden, CKD has been a challenge India has grappled with. According to a reply given in parliament, the country's CKD burden increased 5.6 percent between 1990 and 2017. A Lancet study in 2020 suggested that out of the 697 million CKD cases across the globe in 2017, India alone accounted for 115 million, next only to China.

This is precisely why the latest reports on emerging hotspots raise concern and the Dhenkanal case must be seen as a red flag. It is important to understand that the clinical study came from a hospital setting, which points at a bias since incidence among the diseased segment is always higher. What, however, is alarming is that doctors conducting camps in villages have also reported a significant spurt in kidney ailments and its clustering in the local populace. This calls for a study in the region to understand the actual burden and the reasons. A Regional Medical Research Centre study in the Narasinghpur and Badamba blocks had revealed that over 75 percent of CKD patients did not have diabetes or hypertension, and pointed at either genetic or environmental causes. Curiously, the two CKD hotspots have one common thread—rivers. If it is Mahanadi for Cuttack, Dhenkanal has Brahmani river, whose basin is dotted with a large number of polluting industries. It is imperative that the Odisha government commissions a population-based study and digs deep into the growing burden of kidney disease before its tentacles spread far.

QUICK TAKE

PLAN FOR THE DAILY ROTI

INDIA'S wheat inventories dropped to 9.7 million tonnes at the start of March, the lowest since 2017. This came about after the government bought less and sold more in the market to stabilise prices. But the news of lower Food Corporation stocks comes at a time the met office has warned of weather disruptions in the next few weeks, which are crucial for the crop's harvest in the second half of April. India is also providing free grains to 81 crore beneficiaries. So the balance of stocks is even more crucial this election year than in other times. The call on increasing procurement or allowing imports needs to come soon.

India's democracy and economy today stands on the foundation Nehru built. He was also among the most respected leaders of the Global South in his time

WHAT THE NATION OWES ITS FIRST PRIME MINISTER

K M CHANDRASEKHAR

Former Cabinet Secretary and author of As Good as My Word: A Memoir

SOURAV ROY

THE world has turned topsy-turvy for old-timers like me. In my childhood and teens, Jawaharlal was the object of unending admiration. Chacha Nehru attracted crowds of children with his characteristic long coat and red rose wherever he went. People lined up along the streets he traversed. There was complete faith and trust in him, his love for the country and its people, his learning, his high intellect and his integrity.

After the disastrous war with China in 1962 and his death in 1964, the admiration dissolved. In the last few years, it seems to have turned into an intense hatred among one section of our compatriots. Accusations against him are aplenty.

The main accusation is that he founded a dynasty that has been the ruin of India. Did he? After Nehru had a partial stroke in January 1964 in the official residence of the governor of Orissa, the question on everyone's mind was, "After Nehru, who?" I recall several newspaper articles speculating who could be Nehru's successor. Not only Indian newspapers, but also The Times of London, New York Times and many others made conjectures. There was never any suggestion Nehru had decided to impose a successor on the nation.

In 1960, the well-known columnist Frank Moraes wrote, "There is no question of Nehru's attempting to create a dynasty of his own; it would be inconsistent with his character and career." After his death, an otherwise bitter critic, D F Karaka, saluted this resolve "not to indicate any preference concerning his successor. This, [Nehru] maintained, was the privilege of those who were left behind. He was not concerned with that". His successor, Lal Bahadur Shastri, was soft-spoken and humble, yet was made of steel inside. But for his early demise, India's history would have been different.It is also said Nehru's obsession with Fabian socialism and admiration for Soviet-style centralised planning took India backwards and stood in the way of growth. This is based on a wrong understanding of economic and social conditions prevailing at the time.

The Bombay plan—prepared in 1944-45 by business leaders and technocrats such as JRD Tata, G D Birla, Ardeshir Dalal and John Mathai—emphasised the importance of State participation and central planning in ensuring quick take-off on the economic front. The Bombay Plan was the precursor of the Five-year Plans. It proposed doubling per capita incomes in 15 years, divided into three blocks of five years each, envisaging a transition from agricultural domination to industry, building basic industry and centralised planning. Basic and heavy industries would fall within the government domain, while consumer industries would be left to private enterprise.

The foundation was laid in Nehru's time and the edifice was built, patiently and painfully, with periods of progress and regression, until today, when we can be sure that we will inevitably become the third biggest economy in the world in a few years.

Nehru believed firmly and unshakably in democracy. Mexican poet Octavio Paz, who was that country's ambassador to India for some years, said in 1966, "In contrast to the majority of political leaders of this century, Nehru did not believe that he had the key to history in his hands. Because of this, he did not stain his country nor the world with blood."

If India has not gone the way of Pakistan and several other newly independent countries of the 20th century and remained firmly embedded in the people's will expressed through the ballot box, the credit goes entirely to Nehru. As President Pranab Mukherji said at the 10th Nehru Memorial lecture in 2014, "The establishment of parliamentary democracy in India at independence was a momentous step in the history of the new nation emerging from a long period of colonialism. Although parliamentary democracy in a newly independent nation was thought to be of great risk, Nehru played a central role in making the process a success. His vision transformed the limited representative government given by the British into a vibrant and powerful institutionalised structure suited for the citizens of India. Nehru was a firm believer in freedom of thought and expression and participation of the people in the governance of the country. For Nehru, democracy and civil liberties were not merely a means for bringing about economic and social development, but absolute values and ends in themselves."

Communalism of any kind was abhorrent to Nehru. In his own words, "The spectacle of what is called religion, or at any rate organised religion, in India and elsewhere, has filled me with horror and I have frequently condemned it and wished to make a clean sweep of it. Almost always it seemed to stand for blind belief and reaction, dogma and bigotry, superstition, exploitation and the preservation of vested interests."

As communalism eats into the social fabric again, we must introspect and gather together the values that made us independent and fearless. In foreign policy and international diplomacy, Nehru scaled heights that were never achieved after that period. With Tito of Yugoslavia and Nasser of Egypt, Nkrumah of Ghana and Sukarno of Indonesia, he brought together 120 countries of the Global South to form a powerful bloc of non-aligned countries. He dominated world diplomacy in the 1950s, even though he had to face the ignominy of Chinese troops marching deep into India towards the end of his rule.

He was recognised as a force for peace, the voice of the oppressed. Writing in The Legacy of Nehru: A Memorial Tribute, published the year after Nehru's death, Martin Luther King Jr said: "In all of these struggles of mankind to rise to a true state of civilisation, the towering figure of Nehru sits unseen but felt at all council tables. He is missed by the world, and because he is so wanted, he is a living force in the tremulous world of today".

The first 16 years after independence set the ground for India to grow into the great nation it is today. Why, then, is Nehru derided? I cannot but quote Swami Vivekananda, writing in 1894, "Brother, we can get rid of everything, but not of that cursed jealousy... That is a national sin with us, speaking ill of others, and burning at heart at the greatness of others. Mine alone is the greatness, none else should rise to it." We have not changed much.

TWIN PEAKS: FROM GANDHI'S CHARKHA TO MODI'S CHIP

S VAIDHYASUBRAMANIAM

Vice-Chancellor and Tata Sons Chair Professor of Management, SASTRA (Deemed) University

MAHATMA Gandhi's charkha spun the history of India's independence revolution, leading to political liberation. It was not only a symbol of free India but also a hope for a self-reliant, socio-economically developed India, giving birth to one of India's iconic symbols of swadeshi, the khadi industry. The Sabarmati Ashram birth of khadi in 1918 took an institutional shape in 1924 when the All India Khadi Board was established. Exactly 100 years later, Viksit Bharat@2047's version of self-reliance has arrived with a difference. The hand-charkha is replaced by a hi-tech chip.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's foundation-laying function for three semiconductor plants in Dholera and Sanand in Gujarat, and in Assam's Morigaon is a west-to-east sweep of India's emerging role in this critical global asset.

Chris Miller's Chip Wars (2022) traces the evolution of the global chip manufacturing industry shaped by geopolitical, technical and economic forces, making it the cornerstone of a transformational economy. The Covid times saw turbulence in the chip supply chain that shook the automobile, hi-tech and consumer electronics industries, shifting the headlines from the end-product to the core chip component. Post-Covid, the global chip manufacturing industry is experiencing America's semiconductor tech rivalry with China and China's deepening of local chip manufacturing and supplies industry. Japan, Taiwan and South Korea are also re-calibrating their chip competence to the emerging global order.

While these active foot-soldiering countries of chip manufacturing found new ways of building newer strategies, the Indian government paratrooped into the policy space in 2022 with an India Semiconductor Mission (ISM). It has an ambitious ₹76,000 crore oulay to build a self-reliant semiconductor manufacturing ecosystem to not only boost indigenous chip manufacturing, but also make India a hub for electronics manufacturing.

Gordon Moore's eponymous law has been shrinking the size of chips and making scale economies for the manufacturing industry catalyse government policies to maintain supremacy. Chip Wars traces Taiwan, US, Europe, South Korea and China's internal adjustments to demonstrate the geopolitical undercurrents of the chip tech age. The US's CHIPS Act, Taiwan's historical and continuing engagement with TSMC, the world's most advanced chip producer, and other producers and universities, and China's Xin Chuang or infotech innovation project show governments' role in the semiconductor value chain. This is inevitable as corporate giants are growing taller and chip technology getting competitively smaller at the nano level. Let us take two recent examples signifying the globally competitive ecosystem, while the success stories of TSMC, Samsung and Intel continue to dominate.

AFP

> Just as Gandhi's charkha symbolised India's political independence, Modi's chip manufacturing push is a step towards technological independence. Mass production of smaller chips, emergence of newer tech and value-chain uncertainties have made the semiconductor race fiercer than ever. India has no option but to be a producer

Nvidia's sudden growth in market capitalisation, thanks to the artificial intelligence (AI) wave, has made it the third most valued company next to Microsoft and Apple. Nvidia's valuation, which recently soared to $2.4 trillion, may soon replace Apple in the second position. Controlling over 80 percent of the global AI chip market with its dominant network kit and software market share, Nvidia's arrival with a bigger bang is deep-tech's watershed moment.

Some Japanese players also experienced their 'Nvidia moment', with Elektron, which specialises in chip making equipment, becoming the fourth most valuable company in Japan, pushing behind Mitsubishi, Nintendo and Softbank. The Japanese Big Five chip equipment manufacturers—Tokyo Electron, Advantest, Disco, Lasertec and Screen Holdings—doubled their market cap in one year. The mass production of chips at smaller sizes (up to 2 nanometres) and emergence of transformational technologies such as AI and crypto make the race for semiconductor supremacy fiercer than before. India has no option but to be an active producer, rather than just a consumer.

India's legacy fab (chip fabrication facility), the 1983-established Semiconductor Complex in Chandigarh, cannot be its 2024 response. Hence it was rightly identified to mid-wife the proposed Bharat Semiconductor Research Centre for research capacity building. Previous projects such as RISC-V and Shakti are only scratching the surface.

Modi's ISM is going to be a game-changer in many ways. With India's strong and globally competitive position in fabless design, ISM blew the whistle for India to join the global chip manufacturing race. Tata's historic 'We also make steel' campaign once highlighted its corporate social responsibility and urge to move forward. Its 'We also make chip' will definitely emerge as its nation-building responsibility as India embarks on a momentous journey in chip manufacturing. Tata Electronics' strategic partnership with Taiwanese firm PSMC and its two plants—a fab at Dholera and an outsourced semiconductor assembly and test facility (OSAT) at Morigaon, along with CG Power's OSAT at Sanand—is the beginning of the indigenous chip revolution with a combined investment of ₹1.26 lakh crore, with over 90 percent coming from the Tata Group.

The growing demand for an employable workforce for the semiconductor and electronics manufacturing industry in India is all set to exceed 6-7 million by 2027. Some higher educational institutions have taken early steps for others to follow as companies such as Micron and Tower plan their manufacturing facilities here.

With simmering global tensions affecting the semicon value chain, India's big leap of faith in this strategic sector cannot come at a more appropriate time—emerging as a safe bridge between the West and the East.

Mahatma Gandhi's non-violence movement gave India's political independence. Modi's chip movement will give India tech independence, as the first chip using Bharat's silica gets delivered in 2025.

Conserve water

Ref: The shape of water woes to come (March 12). It is unfortunate that despite water being crucial for human survival, it remains one of the most under-prioritised and over-abused commodities in India. Over-exploitation has led to the present situation. Both the Centre and the state governments must learn from the Bengaluru crisis and make water conservation a top priority.

R Sivakumar, Chennai

Crisis lessons

Water scarcity of the level we are seeing at present was unheard of in the Garden City. How pathetic is it that one has to dig 1,600 feet to find traces of water whereas it was once available at 100 feet. Steps must be taken to avoid wastage of water. Also, rainwater harvesting should be made compulsory for all skyscrapers.

Odisha alliances

Ref: When another CM tied up with the opposition (March 12). Kudos to the author for bringing to readers the story behind an alliance between the Odisha Congress and opposition Ganatantra Parishad in 1957. It is timely, as it comes when a prospective alliance between the BJD and the BJP ahead of the Lok Sabha elections is facing criticism.

Right decision

Ref: SBI info to ECI won't say who gave what to whom (March 12). SBI appears to be acting in the interest of its master with the elections in sight. In this digital era, why does it need five months to furnish the details sought by the court? The Supreme Court has taken the right decision by denying the public lender more time.

Votebank politics

I feel the opposition parties are trying to create fear about the Citizenship Amendment Act to win votes. The act will in no way affect the rights of Muslims that are guaranteed by the Constitution. The current protest by opposition parties appears to be an opportunistic move to win the support of Muslims ahead of the elections.

C M Umanath, Kozhikode

Why hurry?

Implementation of the Citizenship Amendment Act days before the start of the Lok Sabha elections has created confusion in the minds of voters. The opposition will definitely try to cash in on the situation by creating panic among Muslims. I feel the government could have waited till the election results were out.

After CAA notification, govt forms panels to grant citizenship

I&B Minister Anurag Singh Thakur says BJP has done what it promised in manifesto, asks why Opposition wants to take away rights of those who waited for 70 years

MUKESH RANJAN & PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

A DAY after notifying the rules under the Citizenship (Amendment) Act (CAA), the Ministry of Home Affairs on Tuesday launched a dedicated web portal to enable people to apply for citizenship.

"Persons eligible under CAA-2019 can apply for citizenship on this portal: indiancitizenshiponline.nic.in," said a spokesperson. A mobile app will also be launched soon to facilitate applications.

The Centre on Monday implemented the CAA, notifying the rules four years after the law was passed by Parliament to fast-track citizenship for undocumented non-Muslim migrants from Pakistan, Bangladesh and Afghanistan, who came to India on or before December 31, 2014.

With the unveiling of the rules, the Modi government will now start granting Indian nationality to persecuted non-Muslim migrants — Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, Buddhists, Parsis and Christians — from the three countries.

> We said that we would repeal Article 370 and 35A and we did it. Peace and prosperity have been restored in Kashmir. Industry and tourism have got a boost
>
> Anurag Singh Thakur, I&B minister

The ministry has also formed an empowered panel to decide on granting citizenship as well as district-level committees that will verify documents.

Meanwhile, referring to the implementation of the CAA, Minister for Information and Broadcasting Anurag Singh Thakur on Tuesday said that the BJP had delivered on promises it made in the manifesto. "I would like to say just one thing on CAA, what resolves we made have been brought to conclusion. We said that we would repeal Article 370 and 35A and we did it. Peace and prosperity have been restored in Kashmir. Industry and tourism have got a boost," he said.

"We had said that we would get rid of 'triple talaq' to help Muslim sisters. We kept our word. We promised CAA for the minorities facing persecution and harassment in neighbouring countries. Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah have made the biggest humanitarian law to grant citizenship to those minorities," Thakur added.

"Why does the Opposition want to take away the rights of people who waited for citizenship for 70 years? The BJP works in accordance with the Constitution and runs the country according to the constitution," Thakur said.

ASSAM COPS WARN AGAINST BANDH CALL

The Deputy Commissioner of Police, Guwahati, issued a legal notice to leaders of Congress-led 16-party United Opposition Forum of Assam for the call for 'Sarbatmak Hartal' (total strike) against the Citizenship (Amendment) Act. The notice said the hartal is likely to lead to road blockade, forceful closure of shops and other business establishments, and damage to public and private property. Meanwhile, the All Assam Students' Union, 30 non-political indigenous organisations besides Asom Jatiyatabadi Yuba Chatra Parishad, Congress, Raijor Dal and CPI(M) launched protests in various parts of the state. Police beefed up security and took dozens of agitators into custody on Tuesday.

NRC APPLICANTS TO GET PRIORITY

Assam CM Himanta Biswa Sarma on Tuesday said he will be the first to resign if one person, who has not applied for National Register of Citizens, gets citizenship, with protestors claiming that lakhs of people will enter the state after CAA.

'CAA WON'T IMPACT NORTHEAST STATES'

Meghalaya CM Conrad K Sangma said the law will not have any impact in the state since the sixth schedule areas have been exempted from its purview. The law will not be implemented in the north-eastern states where the Inner Line Permit regime is in existence. Meanwhile, Mizoram's student body Mizo Zirlai Pawl burnt a copy of the rules to protest the law.

NO INDIANS WILL LOSE CITIZENSHIP: SHAH

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has honoured Hindu, Buddhist, Sikh and Jain refugees by giving them citizenship through CAA, Union Home Minister Amit Shah said on Tuesday. He said the new law has no provision to strip anyone of their citizenship. Hitting out at the Congress and AIMIM, Shah said AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge and Hyderabad MP Asaduddin Owaisi are lying that minorities of the country will lose their citizenship with the implementation of CAA.

'UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND DISCRIMINATORY'

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will on Wednesday lead a roadshow in Siliguri against the implementation of the CAA. Banerjee, who has been vocal against the law, on Tuesday claimed that the rules notified were "unconstitutional and discriminatory". Addressing an official programme at Habra in North 24 Parganas district, Banerjee maintained that she would not allow the implementation of the Citizenship Act in West Bengal, and urged the people to think several times before applying for citizenship under the law.

Gogoi, Nakul Nath, Vaibhav Gehlot in Cong second list

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE Congress on Tuesday announced its second list of 43 candidates for the upcoming Lok Sabha polls, fielding former Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Kamal Nath's son Nakul Nath from Chhindwara and former Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot's son Vaibhav Gehlot from Jalore.

Other notable names include Gaurav Gogoi, Congress' deputy leader in the Lok Sabha who is being fielded from Assam's Jorhat, and sitting MP Pradyut Bordoloi from Nagaon. Rajasthan MP Rahul Kaswan, who quit the BJP to join Congress, was fielded from Churu again.

Announcing the candidates, Congress general secretary (Organisation) K C Venugopal said, "We have already announced our first list of candidates for the Lok Sabha elections. Today, we are going to announce the second list. Yesterday, the CEC met and cleared the list of around 43 names from Assam, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan," he said.

"Out of the 43 candidates, there are 10 from the general category, 13 from Other Backward Classes (OBC), 10 Scheduled Caste (SC), 9 Scheduled Tribe (ST), and 1 Muslim candidate," said Venugopal.

Notably, names of several senior leaders such as Kamal Nath, Digvijay Singh, Sachin Pilot, and Digvijay Singh are missing from the list. However, the first list featured top guns including Rahul Gandhi, Bhupesh Baghel, K C Venugopal, and Shashi Tharoor.

While there was clamour from party workers for senior leaders Gehlot and Pilot to contest, sources said that the party wants them to focus on the campaign and organizational roles. Sources also said that Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge is unlikely to contest from Karnataka's Gulbarga.

Earlier this week, Kamal Nath ruled out the possibility of contesting from Jabalpur and said he will not leave Chhindwara, which is currently represented by Nakul Nath.

In Rajasthan, Vaibhav Gehlot had unsuccessfully contested from the Jodhpur seat in 2019 against Union Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat. Former minister Govindram Meghwal has been fielded from Bikaner against Union Minister Arjun Meghwal. In Alwar, the party fielded young leader Lalit Yadav against Union Minister Bhupendra Yadav. Overall, the party has fielded new faces in all 10 seats.

A month after release, uncertainty looms over return of 8th Navy officer from Doha

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

UNCERTAINTY shrouds the return of the 8th naval veteran, Commander Purnendu Tiwari, though he was released along with seven others by Qatar court on February 12.

One month has passed since the seven veterans returned to Delhi after 16 months of imprisonment in Doha. It was considered a diplomatic coup as there was a death penalty announced on them, which was later commuted to jail terms until a sudden announcement came on their release.

While Commander Tiwari was allowed to return to his house in Doha, he had to stay back due to a travel ban, which is said to be for an additional issue that needs clearance from Qatar courts. "It's been over a month since Commander Tiwari was released and our wait continues. His 85-year-old mother is extremely anxious on when he would return like others. There have been murmurs about his return but until he takes a flight back and lands at home, uncertainty will continue," said someone known to the family.

Awaiting clearance

It has been over a month since Commander Purnendu Tiwari was released. While he was allowed to return to his house in Doha, he had to stay back due to a travel ban, due to an additional issue that needs clearance from Qatar.

Requests have been made formally to the authorities for over a month on behalf of his family.

"The eight naval veterans were released by Qatar's ministry of interior a month back. Seven of them have returned to India. The eighth Indian national has certain requirements to fulfil, he will return as and when those are completed," said Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal on February 29.

Modi dials Sunak, seeks early conclusion of FTA, boost in bilateral trade

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi engaged in a conversation with British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak on Tuesday, where the two leaders discussed strengthening bilateral trade ties and aiming for the swift conclusion of the Free Trade Agreement (FTA).

"Had a productive discussion with British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak. We reiterated our commitment to enhancing the bilateral Comprehensive Strategic Partnership and striving for the early conclusion of a mutually beneficial FTA," stated Modi.

This exchange occurred just two days after India finalised a trade deal with the European Free Trade Association (EFTA), comprising Switzerland, Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein.

This FTA encompasses investments worth $100 billion and anticipates the creation of one million direct jobs within the next 15 years.

Notably, India had previously sealed FTAs with the UAE in February 2022 and Australia in April of the same year.

While there has been speculation about the India-UK FTA reaching a conclusion before election dates are announced in India, it has yet to materialise, as several crucial issues remain unresolved.

It is worth recalling that negotiations for the India-UK FTA commenced in January 2022, with then-British Prime Minister Boris Johnson setting a Diwali deadline for the deal's conclusion. However, this timeline was extended, and despite numerous rounds of negotiations, significant obstacles persist.

Key sticking points in the negotiations include British negotiators seeking tariff concessions for alcohol and automobiles in the Indian market, while India aims for greater mobility for its professionals in the UK.

Additionally, Modi and Sunak reiterated their dedication to enhancing the bilateral comprehensive strategic partnership between the two nations.

According to an official government statement, they expressed contentment with the advancements achieved under the Roadmap 2030 across various sectors such as trade, investment, defence, security and emerging technologies.

The leaders also exchanged greetings for the forthcoming festive occasion of Holi.

NIA raids 30 locations across 4 states to probe terrorist-gangster nexus

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Tuesday said it has conducted searches at 30 locations covering four states and one Union Territory (UT) in connection with its probe into the terrorist-gangster nexus case.

The agency raided the premises linked to suspected associates of 'designated terrorist' Arshdeep Singh alias Arsh Dala, and other suspects of the banned Khalistan Tiger Force (KTF).

The NIA is probing nefarious criminal activities of KTF and other terror outfits, including smuggling of dangerous hardware, arms and ammunition, explosives, IEDs and narcotics across international borders.

According to an NIA official, raids were conducted across Punjab, Haryana, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Chandigarh as part of the agency's crackdown against the terror activities of the operatives of the banned organisation.

"The premises raided on Tuesday were linked to various suspected associates of Dala, as well as Baljeet Maur and Australia-based Gurjant Singh, in connection with the case registered by the NIA on February 13, 2024. Incriminating materials including digital devices were seized during the raids," a senior official said.

"The smuggled items were meant for use by the operatives of terror outfits and organised criminal gangs operating in various parts of the country for carrying out various terrorist acts, such as extortions to raise funds for KTF, targeted killings, recruitment of vulnerable youth, smuggling of arms and narcotics to India," the official said, alleging that the probe revealed that Dala, Maur and Gurjant had conspired to carry out such activities for furthering their terror agenda.

NIA probing criminal activities of KTF

The NIA is probing nefarious criminal activities of KTF and other terror outfits, including smuggling of dangerous hardware, arms and ammunition, explosives, IEDs and narcotics across international borders. ccording to an NIA official, raids were conducted across Punjab, Haryana, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Chandigarh.

"The suspects whose premises were raided had been working for these three men to promote violent criminal activities, and had been involved in smuggling weapons from Pakistan and recruiting youths for terror activities," the NIA official added.

SBI shares data on electoral bonds with EC

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE Election Commission of India (EC) on Tuesday said that the State Bank of India (SBI) has submitted details of electoral bonds to it on Tuesday evening in compliance with the Supreme Court order.

In a post on micro-blogging site X, the EC said, "In compliance of the Hon'ble Supreme Court's directions to the SBI, contained in its order dated Feb 15 and March 11, 2024, data on electoral bonds has been supplied by the State Bank of India to the Election Commission of India, on March 12, 2024."

The apex court had on Monday ordered the SBI to disclose the details of electoral bonds to the EC by close of business hours on March 12. The court had also mentioned that the Election Commission will have to publish the details shared by the bank on its official website by 5 pm on March 15.

The SBI has issued electoral bonds worth ₹16,518 crore since the inception of the scheme.

Govt's uniform code: No freebies to health professionals by pharma firms

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

PHARMACEUTICAL companies cannot offer gifts to healthcare professionals or their families, should not arrange travel in and outside the country for them to attend conferences, or even extend hospitality like hotel stay, as per a code rolled out by the Centre on Tuesday.

The latest Uniform Code for Pharmaceutical Marketing Practices (UCPMP) detailed penalties for violations and how complaints will be handled. The code said the complainant should deposit a non-refundable amount of ₹1,000 and stressed that no pseudonymous or anonymous complaints will be entertained. The code said that if a violation appears in the media, it will be treated as a complaint.

The Union Ministry of Chemicals and Fertilisers said the pharmaceutical associations must constitute an ethics committee for marketing practices and set up a dedicated portal on the code on their website.

A firm found to be violating the code should submit its comments in not more than 30 days after receiving notice from the committee and which will give its decision within 90 days of the receipt of the complaint.

30 days to reply if code is violated

A company found to be violating the code should submit its comments in not more than 30 days after receiving notice from the committee and which will give its decision within 90 days of the receipt of the complaint.

For medical representatives, the code said, "Pharma companies should not employ any inducement or subterfuge to gain an interview."

The companies should not make claims and comparisons of their drug's usefulness, and the word "safe" must not be used without qualification. They should not claim that the medicine has no side effects, toxic hazards, or risk of addiction.

"The word "new" must not be used to describe any drug which has been generally available or any therapeutic intervention which has been generally promoted in India for more than a year," the code said.

Each company needs to maintain details, such as product name, doctor name, the number of samples given, and date of supply of free samples to healthcare practitioners.

The code lists how the drug should be promoted. The name of the drug, along with a list of active ingredients using the generic name, should be placed adjacent to the display of the name of the drug. Recommended dosage, method of use, and its method of administration should be listed.

Adverse reactions, warnings, precautions for use, and other details for using the product should be mentioned. "The names or photographs of healthcare professionals must not be used in promotional material," the code said.

DA HIKE

The Jharkhand government on Tuesday hiked employees' dearness allowance (DA) to 50 per cent of basic pay from the existing 46 per cent, effective from January 1 this year, an official said.

■ In Gujarat, Modi hits out at previous govts for lacking vision ■ Congress tries to reassert its position in tribal heartland

PM picks holes in Oppn's 'political will' on heritage

The governments post-Independence lacked the vision and the determination to preserve the nation's heritage. There was a tendency to view India through foreign lensess

Narendra Modi, PM

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday said a country that fails to cherish its heritage risks losing its future and criticised previous governments for lacking the political will to save the nation's cultural legacy.

Modi launched the ₹1,200 crore Gandhi Ashram Memorial masterplan at Sabarmati in Ahmedabad and inaugurated the redeveloped Kochrab ashram at a function on the anniversary of the Dandi Yatra, or salt march, taken out by Mahatma Gandhi on March 12, 1930. "A country which does not cherish its heritage loses its future also. Bapu's Sabarmati Ashram is a heritage not only for the country, but for the entire mankind," the PM said.

"The Sabarmati Ashram has become a pilgrimage not only for our freedom movement but also for Viksit Bharat (developed India). Today, Bapu's vision is giving a clear direction to our country for a bright future," he said.

"The governments post-independence lacked the vision and determination to preserve the nation's heritage. Firstly, there was a tendency to view India through foreign lenses, and secondly, there was a compulsion for appeasement, resulting in the neglect and destruction of our rich heritage. Encroachment, neglect, and disorder plagued our cultural treasures," Modi said.

"Once sprawling over 120 acres, this ashram (Sabarmati) has dwindled to a mere 5 acres over time, with only 36 of its original 63 buildings remaining, and now, only 3 are open to tourists.

This historic site, pivotal to the nation's quest for independence and revered by visitors worldwide, must be preserved. It is the collective responsibility of all 1.4 billion Indians," Modi said.

Commending Gujarat for its dedication to heritage preservation, the PM said, "Gujarat has set an example for the nation in safeguarding its cultural legacy. Let us not forget the monumental renovation of Somnath Temple under the leadership of Sardar Saheb (Vallabhbhai Patel), which stands as a historic milestone. Gujarat is home to numerous such invaluable heritage sites."

On Maha tribal turf, Rahul raises pitch for caste survey

Once we come to power, the Congress will carry out a caste census and an economic and financial survey across the country. We will have the exact data of each caste

Rahul Gandhi

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

RAHUL Gandhi's Nyay Yatra on Tuesday entered the tribal Nandurbar district of Maharashtra where he accused the BJP of snatching jal (water), jungal (forest) and jamin (farmland) from the tribals and giving away to a few corporate entities.

Nandurbar was once a Congress bastion where MPs and MLAs were elected from the party. However, the political scenario has changed. It is now represented by BJP Lok Sabha MP Heena Gaviat.

Since 2010, Nandurbar has seen the first Gandhi family member. Rahul is in the last phase of his Nyay yatra which will conclude in Mumbai on March 17 at Shivaji Park. Rahul said his party's government would carry out a caste census and an economic and financial survey, and also strengthen the Forest Rights Act. The yatra entered the state from Gujarat.

He said tribals make up 8% of India's population, and the Congress would ensure that they get a proportionate stake in the development.

"Once we come to power, the Congress will carry out a caste census and an economic and financial survey across the country. It will be a revolutionary step...we will have the exact data of each caste and its representation in the population," he said, addressing a gathering.

The Congress leader also participated in the traditional tribal Holi bonfire, termed Adivasi Nyay Holi Sammelan. He said the Congress cared for the tribal people, and that was why the first Aadhaar card number was given in Nadurbar during Congress-led UPA government. He said PM Modi had waived Rs 14 lakh crore loan of the few rich corporates while nothing was done for the tribal, Dalit and backward classes. "The BJP and Modi are working for the rich and affluent people only while the Congress is fighting for the poor, Dalit, tribal and backward people," said the Congress leader.

He said BJP always called the tribals as Vanvasi, but the tribals are Adivasi only. Defining the difference between Vanvasi and Adivasi, Rahul said the latter meant the indigenous community who had the first right over resources.

Once a Cong bastion

Nandurbar was once a Congress bastion where MPs and MLAs were elected from the party. However, the scenario has changed. It is now currently represented by BJP Lok Sabha MP Heena Gaviat.

Saffron dilemma over two Bareilly seats

BJP is delaying its decision on Bareilly seat as the party seems to be in dilemma over the other two seats – Varun Gandhi's Pilibhit and Dr Sanghmitra Maurya's Badaun — of the division. As per the political grapevine, the saffron ranks are not in favour of giving ticket to Varun Gandhi, the sitting MP from Pilibhit, as he did not spare a single chance to launch a tirade over PM Modi and UP CM Yogi during the last three years. Though the Pilibhit MP has toned down his aggressive demeanour during the last few months, his fate is said to have already been decided by the top brass and will be announced shortly.

Allies in INDIA bloc still mull seat-sharing

After sealing the deal of 17 seats with Congress and keeping the remaining 63 for itself and smaller allies, the road ahead for SP chief Akhilesh Yadav is not going to be smooth as the Communist Party of India (CPI), another component of INDIA bloc, has proposed to contest on six Lok Sabha seats in UP in the upcoming battle of ballots. The seats identified by the CPI are Banda, Ghazipur, Ghosi, Robertsganj (SC), Shahjahanpur (SC), and Dhaurahra. Meanwhile, the Congress and SP have already distributed those seats between them.

Parties cautious, set up coordination panels

The Samajwadi Party which had taken a lead in announcing the Lok Sabha candidates and had rushed to declare around 32 names before sealing the seat sharing deal with the Congress, is now treading very cautiously keeping its cards close to its chest. Similarly, the Congress, despite having released two lists of over 40 candidates in each, is yet to open UP card prolonging the suspense over Amethi and Rae Bareli seats where the party cadre is demanding the candidature of Rahul and Priyanka Gandhi respectively. To ensure the understanding reached between the parties, leaders came up with a strategy to set up coordination panels at various levels.

J&K parties for simultaneous elections: CEC

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE leaders of political parties in Jammu and Kashmir during their interaction with the team of Election Commission headed by Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Rajiv Kumar in Srinagar on Tuesday pressed for simultaneous parliamentary and Assembly polls in the Union Territory.

The 10-member ECI team led by CEC arrived in Srinagar on Monday evening to hold interaction with representatives of political parties and civil and police officials to review preparations for the parliamentary elections in J&K.

The ECI team headed by CEC held interactions with representatives of political parties including NC, Congress, PDP and BJP at SKICC in Srinagar today. National Conference (NC) leader Nasir Aslam Wani, who led the party delegation's meeting with EC, said the parliamentary elections has to be held mandatorily but there is no clarity on Assembly polls in J&K.

"We told the EC team that since 10 years, the Assembly polls have not been held in J&K. Even during the peak of militancy, the Assembly poll was not withheld for such a long time," he said.

BJP scrambles to reach Bihar seat deal, broker peace among partners

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

AMID a tug of war between union minister Pashupati Kumar Paras and his nephew and Lok Janshakti Party (Ram Vilas) chief Chirag Paswan over Hajipur seat, Bihar deputy chief minister Samrat Choudhary on Tuesday claimed that NDA would finalise seat sharing formula for Lok Sabha election soon.

Choudhary, who is also state BJP president, said, "All is well in NDA. All constituents of our alliance are cooperating with each other. Seat sharing arrangement among the alliance's constituents will be announced soon."

To a media query on the possibility of Chirag quitting the alliance, Choudhary shot back and remarked that Chirag was not going anywhere. Bihar chief minister and Janata Dal (United) supremo has already returned from his foreign tour.

Meanwhile, BJP is also striving hard to broker peace between Paras and Chirag, particularly over Hajipur seat so that the seat sharing arrangement could be declared as early as possible. BJP has already started holding discussions with Paras to end the deadlock over Hajipur seat. Chirag, while addressing a public meeting at Sahebganj under Vaishali Lok Sabha seat last Sunday, had also staked his claim to adjoining Vaishali seat.

Presently, Vaishali seat is represented by Veena Devi who had rebelled against Chirag at the time of split in the Lok Janshakti Party but has returned to his camp now. In the last Lok Sabha election, undivided LJP had won Hajipur, Vaishali, Jamui, Khagaria, Nawada and Samastipur seats.

While Paras had won Hajipur seat, Chirag had won Jamui seat for the second consecutive term in the last election. Chirag is presently insisting on six Lok Sabha seats and one Rajya Sabha seat, which BJP will find it difficult to concede. BJP leadership, however, has reportedly agreed to give it five seats.

Seat sharing

Former CM and Hindustani Awam Morcha supremo Jitan Ram Manjhi claimed that seat sharing arrangements in NDA would be finalised by March 15. Manjhi said that there was no problem in seat-sharing arrangement in the alliance

Low-profile Saini tasked to lead saffron surge in polls

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE 54-year-old Nayab Singh Saini is a low-profile BJP politician belonging to the Other Backward Classes (OBC). He has risen through the ranks in the party to become the Chief Minister of Haryana.

Considered a confidante of Manohar Lal Khattar (69), Saini will be replacing the BJP strongman whose second term as chief minister was going to end in October.

A law graduate, Saini was born on January 25, 1970, in Mirzapur Majra village in Ambala district of the state. He started his career in the saffron party's organizational framework in 1996, and in 2002 he became the general secretary of the Amabla district youth wing of the party. He also held the position of district president and general secretary of the state BJP Kisan Morcha.

Sanini was elected MLA from the Naraingarh assembly segment in 2014 when the BJP came to power in the state for the first time. Saini was also a minister in the Khattar cabinet between 2014 and 2019. He was a legislator when he fought the Lok Sabha elections in 2019 and won the Kurukshetra parliamentary seat defeating Nirmal Singh of Congress with a margin of over 3.83 lakh votes.

He did his graduation from BR Ambedkar University in July 1996 and then LLB from Choudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut (UP) in 2010.

Saini enjoys cordial terms with outgoing CM Manohar Lal Khattar, and their relationship goes back to their RSS days.

In 2019, the BJP was victorious on all 10 Lok Sabha seats in Haryana with the party candidates winning with massive margins.

The BJP in October appointed Saini as its Haryana unit president in place of Om Prakash Dhankar. His appointment was seen as the party's move to strengthen its hold over the OBC community and non-Jats. The support of Jats, who are the most populous community in the state, is largely seen to be divided among the Congress, Jannayak Janta Party (JJP) and the Indian National Lok Dal (INLD).

The announcement to pick Nayab Singh Saini as Haryana's next chief minister was sudden, but had the same element of surprise as in 2014 when the party named Khattar to the post in 2014. At that time, Khattar was picked up ignoring senior leaders like Ram Bilas Sharma, Anil Vij, Capt Abhimanyu and O P Dhankar. In the events that unfolded on Tuesday, Saini was picked to succeed Khattar in a similar fashion.

The population of the Saini community is around 8% in Haryana. The community wields influence in many of Haryana's northern districts, including Ambala, Kurukshetra and Hisar, besides in some other districts. Haryana assembly polls are due in October.

Born: January 25, 1970

Place: Mirzapur Majra village, Ambala
Education: LLB from Choudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut

The announcement to pick Nayab Singh Saini as Haryana's next CM had the same element of surprise as in 2014 when the party named Khattar to the post.

Dhami plans to convert 640 school buildings into homestays in U'khand

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

SITUATED in challenging geographical conditions and a harsh environmental area, the Uttarakhand government has proposed a plan to repurpose the buildings of over 640 government schools in Uttarakhand that have been abandoned due to declining student numbers. Speaking to this daily, Director General of Education Banshidhar Tiwari said, "The number of students in government schools in the remote hilly areas of Uttarakhand is decreasing rapidly. This is the reason why more than 640 schools have been closed and many are on the verge of closure."

"The number of closed schools may potentially increase slightly; the final number will be determined at a later date," DG Tiwari said. "Information regarding how many schools are currently closed and in what condition was sought from all the chief education officers by Tuesday, but it will take 3 more days to get detailed information."

Israeli strikes kill 67 Palestinians

RAFAH

WITH no end to the war in sight, Palestinians in Gaza began fasting on Monday for the holy month of Ramadan as hunger worsens across the strip and pressure is raised on Israel over the growing humanitarian crisis. The United States, Qatar and Egypt had hoped to broker a cease-fire ahead of the normally joyous month of dawn-to-dusk fasting that would include the release of Israeli hostages and Palestinian prisoners, and the entry of much more humanitarian aid. But the cease-fire talks stalled last week. Gaza's Health Ministry said the bodies of 67 people killed by Israeli strikes were brought to hospitals over the past 24 hours, bringing the Palestinian death toll to more than 31,184 since the war began. The ministry doesn't differentiate between civilians and combatants in its count, but says that women and children make up two-thirds of the dead. The war began when Hamas-led militants stormed into southern Israel on October 7, killing some 1,200 people, mostly civilians, and taking around 250 hostage. Hamas is still believed to still be holding around 100 captives and the remains of others. Five months of war have forced around 80% of Gaza's 2.3 million people from their homes. AP

Byju's employees morale low, look for jobs

Company shuts all offices except one in Bengaluru; sacked former employees say they have not received dues yet

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

TWO years ago, Byju's was the 13th most valuable start-up in the world with a valuation of $22 billion, and the company would raise funds with ease. But in 2024, the company is struggling to pay salaries to over 15,000 employees and to make the full and final settlement (FnF) for those it laid off last year.

With multiple legal cases and even a $200 million rights issue that the company managed to raise is stuck in an escrow account, the company has been in the news for over a year for all the wrong reasons and these issues have created a big impact on the morale of employees.

On condition of anonymity, many employees that this newspaper spoke to said they are hunting for jobs desperately but couldn't find one given the reputation of the company at present."I have to pay three credit card bills; many are struggling to pay equated monthly installments (EMIs) and various loans. This company, according to us, will collapse at any time," said an employee with Byju's, adding that the company started facing issues since the beginning of the last year.

Another employee who has been trying to find a job for the past one year said, "I have never visited the office and a majority of them who have been recruited in the past one year at least have been working from home. We are clueless about what is happening around and are always being kept in the dark."

The company has shut all its offices and has only one in Bengaluru currently. A couple of former employees who have been fired by the company between June and September last year, said they haven't received two months' salaries and the full and final settlement is still due.

"Even though employees return their assets, the company is not settling their payment and showing a negative balance. When employees ask for FnF, of late, the company is also not responding through emails," said a former employee. Those employees that this newspaper spoke to said that they are going through a tough phase.

"I cleared many rounds in another edtech firm and in the final round, the HR (human resource) department rejected me giving a very absurd reason," said a tutor, requesting anonymity. Irrespective of various issues, both online and offline tuitions are still going on strong and kids are also enrolling in Byju's, said another tutor. When asked about the final settlement and salaries to employees, a source aware of the matter said that the company will settle all dues once the rights issue has been cleared and it is trying hard for the same.

NCLAT directs Jet lenders to transfer ownership to JKC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

REKINDLING fresh hopes for the revival of grounded airline Jet Airways, the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) on Tuesday upheld its resolution plan and approved the transfer of its ownership to Jalan Kalrock Consortium, the successful bidder.

The NCLAT has directed the lenders to complete transfer of ownership within 90 days. It has also directed them to adjust the ₹150 crore paid by the consortium as performance bank guarantee.

The lenders of Jet Airways and Jalan Kalrock Consortium (JKC), the successful bidder, are in a legal tussle for more than a year over the transfer of the management of the grounded carrier.

Earlier, the lenders had approached the Supreme Court, which had declined to interfere in the matter and had directed the NCLAT to take a decision on the issue. The NCLAT directed the managing committee, consisting of lenders led by SBI, to create security on immovable properties as offered by the successful resolution applicant (SRA) JKC within 30 days. Upon creation of such security, lenders were directed to adjust the performance bank guarantee of ₹150 crore towards the payment of the same amount from the SRA.

The NCLAT has directed that within 30 days of creation of security, lenders will issue shares of the airline to SRA and hand over the company. Within 30 days from the date of such handover, the SRA and lenders will be required to complete payments to creditors as per the approved resolution plan, the NCLAT said. Jet Airways can start business and operations, subject to regulatory approvals, after handover to SRA, it added. Jet Airways in September 2023 had said JKC had completed an additional infusion of ₹100 crore in the carrier. With this infusion, JKC had claimed it has fulfilled its financial commitment of ₹350 crore, as per the court-approved plan.

GENERAL POLLS

Google-Election Commission to fight fake info

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

TECHNOLOGY giant Google on Tuesday said it is collaborating with the Election Commission of India (ECI) to enable people to easily discover critical voting information on Google Search ahead of the general election in India.

The company is also using AI models to counter misinformation and implementing strict policies for running election-related advertising on its platforms. Additionally, ahead of the general election, the company is sponsoring Shakti, the India Election Fact-Checking Collective, a consortium of news publishers and fact-checkers. They will work together to aid in the early detection of online misinformation, including deepfakes, and to create a common repository that news publishers can use to tackle the challenges of misinformation at scale.

"With millions of eligible voters in India heading to the polls for the general election in the coming months, Google is committed to supporting the election process by surfacing high-quality information to voters, safeguarding our platforms from abuse, and helping people navigate AI-generated content," said Google in its blog post.

The company said that during the election season, YouTube surfaces a variety of election information panels, including on how to register to vote, how to vote, and candidate information. For news and information related to the election, YouTube's recommendation system prominently surfaces content from authoritative sources on the YouTube homepage, in search results, and in the "Up Next" panel.

Panel seeks ex ante anti-trust rules for digital firms

DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi

THE Committee for Digital Competition Law has recommended a pre-emptive approach to deal with anti-competitive practices of large digital companies. In the draft report released on Tuesday, the committee has recommended an ex-ante legislation specifically applicable to large digital enterprises, to supplement the Competition Act.

"Such an ex-ante law should ensure that behaviours of large digital enterprises are proactively monitored, and that the CCI intervenes before instances of anti-competitive conduct transpire," says the draft report.

The committee proposes that the digital competition act should apply to a pre-identified list of Core Digital Services that are prone to concentration. It also recommends that this list is drawn up on the basis of the Competition Commission of India's enforcement experience, market studies, and emerging global practices.

The Committee recommends that the Digital Competition law should only regulate enterprises which have a 'significant presence' in the provision of a Core Digital Service in India and the ability to influence the Indian digital market.

To identify these large digital players, the committee has recommended two tests -- significant financial strength and significant spread. Basis these tests, the companies need to do a self-assessment and report it to the CCI if they fall within the same. Any non-compliance with the requirement, may lead to significant fines which can be up to 10% of global turnover.

Explaining the need for an ex-ante competition law for Digital companies like Google, Apple and Amazon, the committee says the ex-post model of regulation under the Competition Act, by design, involves fact-finding and inquiry processes which are time-consuming. It says that protracted enforcement proceedings hinder early detection and redressal.

It also observed that digital markets have the tendency to tip swiftly in favour of an incumbent, and therefore, there is a need for a regulatory strategy focussed on preventing anti-competitive conducts.

JAPAN

AVOIDS TECHNICAL RECESSION AHEAD OF BOJ MEET

Japan avoided a technical recession in the second half of 2023 as the country revised economic data higher. The revised data showed Japan's gross domestic product (GDP) grew at an annualised pace of 0.4% in the October-December quarter, the country's Cabinet Office reported on Monday, which is better than the initial estimate for a 0.4% fall. This reversed an earlier preliminary estimate for a 0.1% fall following a negative growth of 0.8% in Q3. Japan's GDP grew 0.1% on a quarter-on-quarter basis, as against the initial 0.1% decline reading and a median forecast for a 0.3% rise. The world's fourth-largest economy behind Germany - avoided a technical recession as companies' stronger-than-expected spending on plants and equipment. Capital expenditure rose 2% QoQ.

SOUTH KOREA

EXPORT FALLS OVER 13% ON YEAR IN EARLY MARCH

The exports of South Korea declined more than 13% on-year in the first 10 days of March on account of fewer working days and weak demand for vehicles. However, sales of semiconductors jumped over 20%, according to official data. According to the data from the Korea Customs Service, the outbound shipments reached $13.54 billion in the March 1-10 period. It was $15.64 billion a year earlier. Per-day exports, however, jumped 8.2% year-on-year to $2.26 billion. The number of working days came to six days during the cited period this year, compared with 7 1/2 days a year earlier. Exportshave been on a solid recovery track since late last year after a year-long downturn. Exports advanced 4.8% year-on-year in February to $52.4 billion, the fifth consecutive monthly gain, on the back of strong demand for semiconductors. The country's imports lost 28.6% on-year to $14.8 billion during the first 10 days of March.

CHINA

RETAIL INFLATION RISES ON LUNAR NEW YEAR GAINS

The consumer prices in China rose for the first time in six months on account of spending linked to the Lunar New Year. It offered some reprieve for the world's second-biggest economy grappling with weak consumer sentiment. The factory-gate prices in the country declined again. The consumer price index (CPI) fell 0.7% year-on-year in February, data from the National Bureau of Statistics (NBS) showed on Saturday. The yearly consumer prices was also the highest in 11 months, buoyed by gains in some key foodstuffs such as pork and fresh vegetables, as well as travel amid a seasonal rush around Lunar New Year in February, as per NBS data. The inflation bouncing into positive territory contrasted with the 0.8% decline in January, the steepest fall in over 14 years, due to higher statistical base in January 2023 as the Lunar New Year arrived earlier that month and boosted spending.

BSNL activates 3,500 4G BTS, telco to launch full services soon: CMD

RAKESH KUMAR @New Delhi

STATE-owned telecom service provider Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) has activated 3,500 4G base transceiver stations (BTS) across the country, said the company's CMD P K Purwar.

Purwar, speaking on the sidelines of the India Mobile Congress curtain raiser, also mentioned that these 3,500 BTS offer 4G services on both commercial and trial basis. BSNL aims to launch full-fledged 4G services nationwide soon.

"Our 4G trial services are in full swing. We have already activated 3,500 4G services in the country, and we plan to launch even more soon," said Purwar.

BSNL plans to expand its 4G services to cover 100,000 BTS. In January 2024, Purwar said BSNL aims to launch its 5G network using the same indigenous technology stack by December 2024. They had set the December 2024 timeline, and all the sites are upgradable to 5G via a software update.

However, BSNL's 4G launches have been delayed for years. While its competitors, Bharti Airtel and Reliance Jio, are rolling out their 5G services, the state-owned telco is struggling to launch commercial 4G services. Consequently, the company is losing a significant number of subscribers to its competitors.

Our (BSNL) 4G trial services (base transceiver stations) are in full swing. We have already activated 3,500 4G services in the country, and we plan to launch even more soon

P K Purwar, CMD, Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited

According to the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India, BSNL holds only 7.94% market share as of December 2023. Last month, the BSNL Employees Union (BSNLEU) had urged the government to temporarily utilise the network of Vodafone Idea Limited (VIL) to provide 4G services to BSNL customers. The union's suggestion to use the Vodafone Idea Limited network stems from the government being the largest stakeholder in the company.

Currently, the Government of India holds a 33.1% stake in Vodafone Idea Limited (Vi) after accrued interest towards the Adjusted Gross Revenue (AGR) arrears of Vi was converted into equity in February 2023. UK's Vodafone Plc and India's Aditya Birla Group jointly own 50.4% of India's third-largest telecom operator. Subsequently, the BSNLEU has requested that the government, leveraging its position as the largest shareholder in Vi, ensure BSNL is allowed to immediately provide 4G service to its customers by utilizing Vi's 4G network.

Telcom company to use indigenous technology stack

BSNL plans to expand its 4G services to cover 100,000 BTS. In January 2024, Purwar said BSNL aims to launch its 5G network using the same indigenous technology stack by December 2024. They had set the December 2024 timeline, and all the sites are upgradable to 5G via a software update. BSNL's 4G launches have been delayed for years.

Major headroom for ARPU; prices need to increase: Vodafone Idea

RAKESH KUMAR @New Delhi

VODAFONE IDEA LIMITED (VIL), the country's third-largest telecom service provider, said there is significant headroom for average revenue per user (ARPU) as usage has increased considerably.

The company, in its latest investor presentation, mentioned ARPU has not increased in line with the usage, and the customers' ability to pay higher prices has been established. "Prices need a further uptick to generate reasonable returns and support future investments," the company said. On 5G services, the telco said it had completed the minimum rollout obligation (MRO) in four circles. The telco further said it has sufficient mid-band and mmWave spectrum for the foreseeable future. Its Vi AirFiber home broadband solution has been tested with multiple partners.

For 5G, the company targets to cover 40% of its revenue in the first 24 to 30 months. It will deploy small cells in hotspot locations of metros and large cities for a better experience.

The loss-making company in February 2024 announced to raise funds nearly ₹45,000 crore through a combination of equity and debt. The company will raise 20,000 crore via a combination of equity and/or equity-linked instruments.

Successful IPOs fall on valuation worries, regulatory scrutiny

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

AFTER a dream debut, shares of recently listed blockbuster initial public offerings (IPOs) are facing severe selling pressure on the street and changing hands well below first-day gains.

Shares of Vibhor Steel Tubes, which gave the second highest listing day gain (193% over its issue price) of all time, have nosedived from Rs 442 (day 1 closing price) to Rs 245 (last trading price), a sharp drop of 45% in just about 20 days. Similarly, shares of BLS E-Services, which gave the sixth-highest listing day gain (175%) of all time, have cracked from ₹371 to ₹296 in little over a month. The IPOs of Vibhor Steel Tubes and BLS E-Services had received a thunderous response from investors and were booked 320 times and 162 times, respectively.

The sudden turn in fortune comes as investors are dumping small and midcap stocks over stretched valuation concerns. Nifty Smallcap 100 index has crashed 5% in the past one week while Nifty Midcap 100 is down by more than 2%.

The correction also comes at a time when market regulator SEBI is probing irregularities in the IPO process of several companies, especially ones where subscription numbers were high.

Prashanth Tapse, Sr VP Research analyst at Mehta Equities, said that the fear surrounding SEBI inspections, especially in light of recent scrutiny on IPO processes, is prompting investors to book profits, leading to fresh selling pressure in recently listed IPOs. Out of the approximately 18-19 IPOs this year, about 6 are trading below their issue price, while others are trading above but still below their listing day highs.

"This trend is primarily driven by investors attempting to secure gains amidst stretched valuations and a broader selloff in Mid & Small cap stocks. While SEBI's focus on irregularities mainly targets SME IPOs, the apprehension extends to main board IPOs, causing investors to opt for profit-taking and a safety-first approach," added Mehta. The BSE SME IPO index, which tracks the performance of recently listed small and medium enterprises stocks, crashed 5% on Tuesday after SEBI chairperson Madhabi Puri Buch on Monday said that the market regulator has noticed signs of "manipulation" in the SME segment.

Investors' concerns are such that even a Tata Group stock is facing selling pressure. Shares of Tata Technologies which closed its first trading day on 30th November 2023 at ₹1,314 apiece, up 163% over its issue price, are now trading at ₹1,067 level. Investors are also dumping shares of last week's listed Cos such as Exicom Tele-Systems and Mukka Proteins.

Ashwin recalls captain's help in family emergency

R Ashwin has spoken about the time when he was forced to leave the India team to attend to his mother in Chennai. "Rajkot airport closes at 6 pm and there are no flights after that. Rohit literally asked me to stop thinking, and leave to be there with my family, and he was trying to arrange a charter flight for me," Ashwin recalled on his YouTube channel

TAME SHOW IN ITALY A BIG WAKE UP CALL

Indian boxers' poor return in Olympic qualifiers a cause for concern

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

THE last few days turned out to be a rude awakening for Indian boxers. This could even by considered as one of the worst performances in Indian boxing at a Olympic Games qualifying event. With just 135 days left for the marquee event to begin, this is definitely not healthy for a sport that boasts of three Olympic medals including Vijender Singh's 2008 bronze.

As many as nine boxers returned empty-handed from the just-concluded World Olympic Qualifier at Busto Arsizio, Italy. The men boxers from the country are yet to win a single quota for the country. What's more concerning is that most pugilists didn't even come close to challenging for quotas.

This will reflect poorly on the Boxing Federation of India (BFI) and its Long Term Development plan. With quotas on the line in Italy, a total of 598 boxers had entered the event and the competition was expected to be tough. Barring Nishant Dev, who just missed out on the quota after reaching the quarterfinals, all the other participants from the country lost their very first bouts. This has not gone down well with certain section of the BFI. Rajesh Bhandari, the current vice president of BFI, was not amused. The former secretary of boxing federation (Indian Amateur Boxing Association) said this performance has upset the entire community. "We are not satisfied with the performance of the boxers," he told this daily. "We have asked the president and the secretary to call for an urgent meeting where we will discuss this failure of our boxers. It's really a sad day for boxing."

Nishant Dev (71kg) | AA

The veteran sports administrator, during whose tenure women's national was introduced, said there should be a total evaluation. "We have to take stock of the situation and take corrective measures right now," he said, adding that all issues pertaining to change in coaches and support staff also will be taken up.

There have been major changes in coaches' depart in the last year or so. There seem to be a dearth of quality on the bench. This also puts a cloud on the process of the BFI. Given the fact that boxers had been selected after a thorough selection process which included an evaluation process in the build-up to the competition, this setback is a massive blow. The first step towards selection was the national championships in Shillong late last year and the gap between the best and the rest was obvious. "Barring a few weight categories, the eventual winners put up comprehensive wins," one of the coaches had observed then.

Unhappy times

After naming the team, the boxers had also been part of the training camp at Budva, Montenegro just from February 14 to 28. Two-time Olympian Shiva Thapa (63.5kg), despite his years of experience, was forced to yield in the very first round. Narender (+92kg), who had just missed out on a quota in the Asian Games, suffered similar fate. Mohammad Hussamuddin (57kg), who was making a comeback after injury last year, also stood helpless as the Indians fell by the wayside, one after another. All the parties — boxers, coaches and officials involved in making key decisions — won't have much time to reflect on this latest disaster.

Say no to 50kg entry: Wrestler to UWW

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

ONE of the women wrestlers, who competed in the selection trials in Patiala on Monday, wrote to the United World Wrestling (UWW) requesting it not to accept Vinesh Phogat's entry in the 50kg category and trained the gun at the ad hoc committee for flouting norms. The complainant also urged the world governing body to direct the WFI to hold fresh trials in the weight category. This development comes on the heels of a Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) report to the world governing body on the incident.

Notably, two-time World Championships medallist Vinesh won the 50kg final securing a place in the contingent for the Asian Championships and Asian Olympic Games Qualifier scheduled next month. Vinesh also competed in the 53kg during the trials, losing the semifinal. This apparently irked wrestlers, who even approached the ad-hoc committee complaining against the move that led to a considerable delay in the commencement of competitions in both weight categories.

"I would like to draw your attention towards the violation of the UWW Rules during the selection trials conducted by the illegal ad-hoc committee," the wrestler wrote in her mail to UWW. "In fact, the ad-hoc committee is not well conversant about the rules and regulations of wrestling and chairman of ad-hoc committee basically belongs to wushu game. The UWW technical officials had also followed the directions of the chairman, ad-hoc committee," she added.

This daily spoke to the complainant, who, on the condition of anonymity, admitted that she had lodged a complaint with the UWW. "It appeared that the trials were organised for one particular wrestler as all the rules and regulations were set aside to make sure she not only competes in two weight categories but also wins the bouts. If that was the case, why this farce? They should have sent her name directly for the tournaments," the wrestler complained. In her complaint, she also said the weigh-in started at 7 AM but the ad-hoc committee and referees deliberately started bouts in the two weight categories at 1:30 PM.

"Sir, it was not selection trials. In fact, it was all drama controlled by the ad-hoc committee through the UWW referees and Vinesh Phogat. The other referees were also sitting idly and no one objected to this rule. My request is that kindly do not accept the entry in 50kg and direct WFI to hold the fresh trial in 50kg since the trial in this weight category was totally controlled by Vinesh only," the wrestler wrote.

One of the members of the ad-hoc committee, MM Somaya, when contacted, expressed his inability to speak. He said only the chairman can speak on the issue. Chairman Bhupender Singh Bajwa didn't respond to a query in this regard. WFI sources claimed that the representatives from the federation were directed to leave the venue during Vinesh's bouts. The WFI had also written to the UWW explaining its position and questioning the decisions taken by the ad-hoc panel.

KEEPING A CLOSE WATCH

The BCCI has cleared Rishabh Pant to take part in IPL as a wicketkeeper-batter. The selection committee will have a keen eye on all the Indian glove-men for the one available spot in the T20 World Cup, a look at some players in the league....

RISHABH PANT

The press release from BCCI said he is cleared as a wicketkeeper-batter to play for Delhi Capitals. Coming back from a life-threatening car accident, it will not be easy for the premier star of Indian cricket. How his body copes with the workload of donning the gloves and batting through the IPL will be crucial.

DHRUV JUREL

He was the impact player for Rajasthan Royals last year, but since then his stakes have gone up as Jurel made his India debut in the longest format. Should not come as a surprise if RR makes the youngster keep wickets to give him the best chance of making the flight to the United States.

KL RAHUL

Although the senior batter is in rehab, he is expected to start for Lucknow Super Giants. He has made it clear that he will be open to batting in the middle and keep wickets for LSG because of traffic in the top-order of Indian team. He will be hungry to score runs and prove that his body can take stress too

JITESH SHARMA

Got a run of games but he has not scored big to secure his place in the side. And in this IPL, the Punjab Kings wicketkeeper will be competing with other big names in the circuit who will be vying for the spot in the Indian team. That is why, having a massive IPL is crucial for Jitesh to retain his place in the squad for the World Cup

SANJU SAMSON

Yes, he is RR captain and yes, he keeps for them. He had a good IPL in 2022, but last year was forgettable. Although he scored an ODI century for India in South Africa, Samson having a good IPL, not just with the bat and glove but also as a captain is important for him to make a case for himself even as a backup keeper

SHAMI, PRASIDH OUT OF IPL Meanwhile, the BCCI has confirmed that pacers Mohammed Shami and Prasidh Krishna are ruled out of the Indian Premier League. Shami was with Gujarat Titans while Prasidh was with Rajasthan Royals. Shami is expected to return for the home Test series against New Zealand.

Inter-esting fixtures

Last year's losing finalists, Inter, are a draw away from the last eight while Dortmund and PSV are a win away. A look at another set of Champions League fixtures...

Dortmund vs PSV

FIRST LEG: PSV 1-1 DORTMUND

The Bundesliga outfit are far off the pace so a European run is their only avenue to salvage what has been a middling season by their standards. They have been leaky but will fancy their chances at home. The Dutch side, who are going great guns in the league, too will know they haven unlikely last eight appearance within their grasp. The great entertainers have scored 80 goals in 25 leaue games.

Atletico vs Inter

FIRST LEG: INTER 1-0 ATLETICO

The Serie A giants are the runaway leaders, having won 24 out of 28 games in the league. In Europe, too, they have been very solid, having conceded only five goals in seven games. They are yet to lose a game in Europe. If they can keep that record intact, they will go through. Atletico have won only one of their last five games and will need to find an extra gear from somewhere if they are to turn this around.

Cole Palmer celebrates after scoring in Chelsea's 3-2 win against Newcastle | AP

EPL: Palmer sparkles to boost Pochettino

AGENCIES @ London

CHELSEA forward Cole Palmer has emerged as one of the Premier League's brightest young stars to ease the pressure on Mauricio Pochettino and leave Pep Guardiola ruing what might have been.

Palmer is enjoying a breakthrough season after his surprise move from Manchester City on transfer deadline day last September. The 21-year-old's latest highlight came on Monday when he played the decisive role in Chelsea's much-needed 3-2 win against Newcastle at Stamford Bridge.

Palmer teed up Nicolas Jackson for Chelsea's first half opener when his shot was flicked in by the Senegal striker. After Newcastle's Alexander Isak equalised, it was Palmer who stepped up to restore the lead with a superb finish for his 13th goal in all competitions for Chelsea.

Given license to roam from his nominal starting position on the right of Chelsea's front three, Palmer has scored and assisted in five different league games, a feat unmatched by anyone else in the Premier League in the current campaign. He has been directly involved in 19 goals this season and is Chelsea's top scorer.

Palmer's emergence as their most influential player has been one of the only bright spots in a gloomy season for beleaguered Blues boss Pochettino. The Argentine has struggled to create a cohesive unit from a disparate collection of players thrown together over the last two years in Chelsea co-owner Todd Boehly's £1 billion ($1.2 billion) spending spree.

WPL: Of letting go and being brave, Arundhati's story of resurgence

GOMESH S @ New Delhi

WHEN Biju George met Arundhati Reddy in Hyderabad during the 2023 Indian Premier League, the India international, a vital cog of the Delhi Capitals side that reached the 2023 Women's Premier League final, had resigned from her Railways job to focus more on her cricket.

Having been with Railways from 2017-18 till the 2022-23 season, Reddy decided it was time to move on. In this period, she had featured in 24 List-A and 21 T20s for Railways and five T20s for Central Zone. That is when George, the former India women's and current DC fielding coach, had a conversation with her. It did not take long him to put her in touch with Kerala Cricket Association. Soon enough, Reddy was set to represent the state in the 2023-24 season. "Going to Kerala was a brave call," recalls George. "She wanted to focus more on cricket and she believed that she wasn't getting more chances as an all-rounder. In the meantime, KCA was also welcoming. Vinod S Kumar, the secretary, was very welcoming as they took her onboard," he adds. At that point, Reddy's aim was to make her mark in the domestic circuit as an all-rounder, plotting her comeback to the national team. In the past couple of years, she had taken to spirituality, become a lot more calmer in approaching life and cricket. Now, her focus was on upskilling and showcase what she was capable of. Although she did not get to bowl regularly in the senior T20s, Kerala reached the semi-finals. As a senior member, Reddy had a big part in it.

Arundhati Reddy | SPORTZPICS

By the time the one-dayers came along, Reddy had settled in. In five innings, she scored 252 runs at an average of 126 apart from four wickets. Although Kerala missed out on knockouts berth, Reddy kept pushing herself and team. "She performed well and lifted the performance of the team as well. The benefit with her is that she shared her experience with me and the players and it gave them a lot of confidence. That made a difference to the players as well," says Kerala coach Suman Sharma.

Going into the 2024 WPL with this momentum, Reddy became the go-to first change pacer for DC captain Meg Lanning. Unlike the last season, where she did not play all games, Reddy has been a regular for DC. She has taken eight wickets — most by an Indian pacer so far — in seven matches.

One of the key factors behind Reddy's performance and confidence is the work she had put in during the season. Reddy worked on her release positions, especially with the new ball, with George during the DC camps. "She really pushed herself, worked on specific things she wanted to do. Even though she is not bowling with the new ball in WPL," he said.

RANJI TROPHY

Mumbai set 538-run target for Vidarbha

AGENCIES @ Mumbai

YOUNG Musheer Khan continued his rapid ascent with a superlative 136 to put Mumbai in an impregnable position on day 3 of the Ranji Trophy final against Vidarbha, with Shreyas Iyer (95) and Ajinkya Rahane (73) also making significant contributions on Tuesday. At stumps, Mumbai had one hand on their 42nd title after setting a humongous 538-run target against a battered Vidarbha.

Resuming at 58, Rahane began positively with a four but became a victim of left-arm Vidarbha spinner Harsh Dubey (5/144) for the second time in the contest. Iyer joined his captain in making the most of the opportunity, as a change in approach was evident. For his 111-ball 95, the flamboyant batter outgunned Musheer and Rahane for the strokes that he hit. A mere five runs short of a century in the final, Iyer slashed hard on a delivery from Aditya Thakare but couldn't connect. Two balls later, he went for a powerful swipe again which had the ball ballooning towards Aman Mokhade, who grabbed a comfortable catch at long-on.

BRIEF SCORES: Mumbai 224 & 418 in 130.2 ovs (Musheer Khan 136, Shreyas Iyer 95; Yash Thakur 3/79, Harsh Dubey 5/144) lead Vidarbha 105 & 10/0 in 2 ovs (Atharva Taide 3 n.o., Dhruv Shorey 7 n.o.) by 528 runs.

Vikram Partap Singh struck the back of the net thrice to become only the sixth Indian in ISL history to notch a hat-trick, and the second youngest Indian to do so in the league after Kiyan Nassiri Giri's feat against East Bengal FC in January 2022.

It was an absolutely overwhelming show put on by the Islanders, who registered their fourth victory in their last six matches to further their formidable run towards retaining their ISL League Winners Shield title.

IT professionals wanting to head back home; demands that the IPL be moved to other cities; and Holi parties being cancelled – namma ooru is grappling with a Cape Town-esque water crisis

H2 Zero

PIC: ALLEN EGENUSE J

SEVEN years ago in mid-2017, Cape Town in South Africa hit the international headlines with the water crisis the city was facing. The situation went from bad to worse when water restrictions of 87 litres per person per day were implemented. Many experts had predicted that Bengaluru would be the next Cape Town with its unplanned expansion following the IT boom over the last two decades. The water woes in the last month have become so bad that many people from the IT sector who have made Bengaluru their home are contemplating moving back to their hometowns. Yagna Sree, a 33-year-old software engineer and resident of KR Puram is planning to return to her hometown in Andhra Pradesh. "I am hoping that my husband is allowed to work-from-home, too. In fact, construction of our house has come to a standstill due to the water crisis," she says.

Fluid state of affairs

Amidst the worst water shortage in decades, calls are rising from different quarters to move the Bengaluru matches of the Indian Premiere League (IPL) out of the city. With this trending on social media, IPL 2024 – starting on March 22, the first match of which will be held at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium on March 25, is drawing a lot of ire on the internet. At the same time, there is major concern over the city's image taking a beating if the IPL matches are moved. With 10,000-15,000 litres of water required for the matches, the big question is if the city can pull-off an event of this scale. Shubendu Ghosh, CEO of the Karnataka State Cricket Association, says, "We are looking at the government's new policy on water usage and are in discussions about how to deal with the situation."

Small steps, BIG impact

The water crunch has forced the hospitality industry to curb water consumption. At Clarks Exotica Convention Resort and Spa, one block has been shut to prevent water wastage. Chethan Bangre, chief engineer, says, "Previously, the resort utilised up to 40 water tankers each month to meet the demand. Amidst the crisis, we are planning to reuse treated water for sanitary purposes." Not just institutions, Saarim Khursheed, COO of Why Waste? which works towards conservation of water, points out that small steps can prevent worsening of the situation. "Using grey water – lightly-used water from washing machines, sinks, etc, – might be useful," he says.

PARTY POOPER

With Holi on March 25, the city's residents are also facing a decision on how to celebrate the festival that is known to consume a lot of water. Bengali in Bangalore, a cultural organisation in South Bengaluru, organises Holi parties every year but have decided to cancel the party from their end this time. President Ananyabrata Bhakta, says, "The water situation requires our urgent attention. We have commercialised the city and have forgotten to give back to nature. This was bound to happen and we are just reacting to it now that it has reached our homes. We are leveraging our position to create guidelines on how to conserve water and as a collective, we have decided to not celebrate Holi. We have to adapt to the situation."

- Rest your hands on the floor in front of you, fingers facing forward behind the toes of your left leg.

- Lift the right leg as high as possible. Keep the toes of the lifted leg pointed upwards.
- Stay in the pose for about 20 seconds, with even breathing.
- Inhale, bring the right leg down to the ground and come back to Tadasana.
- Repeat the pose on the other side, keeping the right leg on the ground and the left leg up in the air. Stay in the pose for the same length of time on both sides.

THE HIDDEN CATALYST

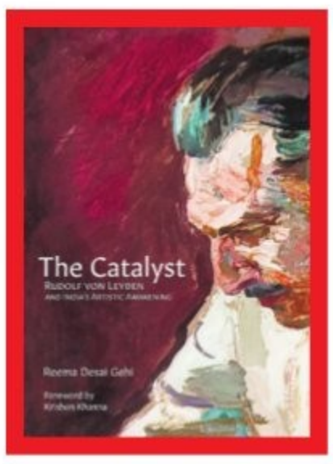
Art writer Reema Desai Gehi's recently-released book explores the life of a German émigré who championed the works of experimental Indian artists, and played a crucial role in shaping modern Indian art

DESE GOWDA

As the Nazi influence grew in Germany during the 1930s, the systematic persecution of ethnic and socio-political minorities displaced thousands from their homes, compelling them to seek refuge away from Europe's troubled political climate. Among the preferred destinations for these émigrés was India, which, though under British colonial control, proved to be an unlikely yet welcoming haven. The cosmopolitan city of Bombay (now Mumbai), which already hosted significant minority communities such as Jews and Parsis, embraced these new refugees fleeing persecution by the Gestapo. And in turn, many of them became influential in various fields such as education, art, and science. Writer, researcher, and cultural facilitator Reema Desai Gehi's recently released book The Catalyst: Rudolf von Leyden and India's Artistic Awakening (Speaking Tiger; ₹799) explores the rich life of one such émigré.

Born in Berlin, Germany, Rudolf 'Rudi' von Leyden's Jewish ancestry and communist leanings drew unwelcome attention from the Nazis. After an unsuccessful attempt at a career in geology in Germany, Leyden shifted to advertising and later into art criticism in Bombay. "It was purely by chance that Rudi became an art critic. Yet, he wrote persuasively and in simple, coherent English, devoid of jargon. He responded to art intuitively, from his heart rather than his mind. He served as a mentor figure to the Bombay Progressive Artists' Group," says Gehi, who was recently in the city for the Bengaluru launch of the book.

Gehi describes Rudi as a Renaissance man, whose interests weren't confined to a bubble. "The thing that drew my interest toward Rudi was that his life was not just restricted to art. He was interested in music, theatre, and poetry as well as art. But notably, it was his eye for understanding and discovering talent that made him stand apart," Gehi says, adding, "In fact, it was he who discovered the renowned artist SH Raza. We also have to remember that at that time, information took a long time to travel around the world. And Rudi also played a crucial role in exposing the kind of art being created in Europe to all these upcoming Indian artists."



The Catalyst is a result of over seven years of research, archival works and interviews with people who knew Leyden, including his descendants. The choice of the title, Gehi reveals, came from her editor but perfectly encapsulates Leyden's role. "A catalyst is something that transforms but doesn't change," she says, echoing artist Krishen Khanna's words. She further adds, "Behind the scenes, there are many people who contribute to the success of famous artists, even though they may not get the same recognition. These individuals play a crucial role in shaping the artists' careers and artworks. I am particularly interested in this history, which I would not call marginalised but rather a hidden history. Rudi became more than just an art critic; he became a promoter and extended his relationship with the artist beyond the traditional role of an art critic. In every sense, he was the greatest champion of the artist's progress."

With her book, Gehi aims to offer more than a mere biography of a singular figure. She hopes readers see it as a piece of social history, shedding light on Bombay's art history, German history, and life in Austria during a specific period. More than that, it's a story of inspiration and humility. "The life I have written about is deeply inspiring. It shows that one does not need to be a superstar to make a significant contribution. One can remain out of the spotlight and still help others grow. In doing so, one can find purpose in life," she says.

ZAID KHAN AND ANIL KUMAR JOIN HANDS FOR A ROMANTIC DRAMA

The Banaras actor, who has finalised a script with the Upadhyaksha director, says the film is going to be a youthful tale for today's generation

Zaid Khan and Anil Kumar

A SHARADHAA

ZAID Khan, who marked his acting career in director Jayathirtha's multilingual film, Banaras (2022), has taken time to carefully choose his sophomore project. While rumours of his collaboration with various directors have been making rounds for some time, Zaid has now confirmed his collaboration with Anil Kumar, the director behind the hit film, Upadhyaksha. "Banaras marked a good debut for me. Ever since, I have been listening to stories from different directors and perusing through numerous scripts. Now, after much contemplation, I chose to collaborate with Anil Kumar," says the actor.

Anil is the dialogue writer of Sudeep's Kempegowda and has also worked with actors like Malashree in Shakthi, Sumanth and Radhika Pandit in Dilwala, and Sharan in Rambo 2. With Upadhyaksha, which marked Chikkanna's debut as a lead, hitting theatres recently, Anil Kumar is all set for a fresh collaboration with Zaid Khan.

According to Zaid, his sophomore project is yet another tale of love. "Anil Kumar is crafting a romantic drama, but it will not be as experimental as Banaras. It's a contemporary story crafted for today's youth," Zaid reveals, adding, "The film is in its early stages, and if everything falls into place, we plan to commence filming in June."

While the director-actor duo has confirmed their collaboration, details about the film's production house, title and technical crew will be disclosed when the film goes on floors, along with a grand muhurat.

Meanwhile, Zaid has ambitious plans, eyeing back-to-back projects. "I am in discussions for a few more films and hope to kickstart them once I fulfil my current commitments," he says.

I wish to get my breakthrough with Kerebete: Gowrishankar

The actor discusses the extensive effort that went into the making of Kerebete, his contributions to the story, and screenplay, as well as penning the dialogues for the film

CE FEATURES

ACTOR Gowrishankar, who is gearing up for the release of Kerebete on March 15, says the project is a make-or-break opportunity. "I had put in a lot of hard work for my debut as an actor, Rajahamsa (2017), but for some reason, the film didn't work. Overcoming the failure takes a long time, especially when financial aid is borrowed. But I did not give up, and it has taken me almost six years to sign up for my sophomore, Kerebete," says Gowrishankar.

Backed by Jaishankar Patel under the banner of Janamana Cinemas, Kerebete is directed by Rajguru B. The film stars Bindu Shivram as the female lead, while Gopalkrishna Deshpande and Sampath Maitreya play pivotal roles. The film features a musical score by Gagan Baderia, alongside cinematography by Keerthan Poojary.

Apart from facing the camera, Gowrishankar has also taken up other responsibilities. From producing the film to contributing to the storyline, which took almost six months to develop, the actor has also co-written the screenplay along with the director and the dialogues for Kerebete. "I made it clear to all those involved in the project that I will ultimately make the decisions, even though others have the space to suggest their ideas. While everyone shares the credit for a film's success, I don't mind taking sole responsibility for its failure, as I don't believe in blaming others," he asserts. He further adds that the making of Kerebete was more like sculpting, so much so that every detail was meticulously planned. "We made sure that no changes were made on set, and a lot of preparation went into the making."

While Kerebete revolves around the popular fishing event, called lake hunting, in Malnad, it also explores an untouched subject, says Gowrishankar. "We have showcased the Malnad culture in depth, and have portrayed the lifestyle of that belt. From love to emotions to family sentiments, Kerebete has everything. Rooted in the culture of the region, the film captures the rustic charm of rural life," the actor explains. Without revealing too many details about his character, Gowrishankar shares, "Unlike films where heroes are always portrayed positively, the protagonist in Kerebete has both negative and positive sides to him because that is the nature of every human being."

Gowrishankar is determined that the film will succeed. "I'm determined to give my all and make a lasting impact, even if it comes from a single film. This will bring me satisfaction, irrespective of whether I choose to stay in this field. I have been in the industry for almost 18 years, working in various departments before becoming an actor. I am still struggling to get the right break, and I hope the audience will realise my dream."

PRASHANTH TO MAKE COMEBACK WITH SHOONYA'S ROSY

CE FEATURES

DIRECTOR Shoonya's latest film, Rosy, which marks Yogesh's 50th film, is currently in the making. Orata I Love You fame Prashanth joins the previously announced cast members Sandy and Srinagara Kitty, who play principal characters in the film. Prashanth will be seen as Anna Swamy in the upcoming film.

Shoonya describes Rosy as a stylish gangster drama, that will mark Prashanth's comeback to acting after a long break. The makers released a poster introducing Prashanth's character, along with details of the crew members. On why he chose the film, Prashanth says, "I received many opportunities, but I was quite drawn to the story told by director Shoonya. My character design was particularly appealing. More so, I have also longed to work alongside Yogi."

Finding yourself at home and outside

NAMRATA JOSHI

DEBUT films usually emerge from a deeply personal space. Sean Wang's Didi, which won the audience award in the US Dramatic Competition at the Sundance Film Festival earlier this year, harks back to his own adolescence.

The coming-of-age film is set in the summer of 2008, before the start of high school, and revolves around a 13-year-old Taiwanese American boy Chris Wang (Izaac Wang), his sibling, mother, grandmother, and his universe of friends and foes.

There's a sense of rootedness when it comes to the inherited culture that Didi (a Chinese term of endearment used for the youngest son in the family) is born into as well as a sense of belonging for the diverse set of people outside, who call him Wang Wang. All of it goes into the making of a unique hyphenated identity, which is the same for a lot of Didi's friends as well. They are first-generation teenagers from countries around the world. I was especially happy to see South Asian-American Fahad, Rishi, and Hardeep in Chris's multi-cultural mix of a friend group, as I was happy to hear him being referred to as 'my little Ang Lee', the biggest Taiwanese success in Hollywood.

But, beyond the specificity of these identity issues, Sean's narrative is a broader, vibrant and lively journey through the highs and lows of teenage years. There's the fun, games, and pranks on the one hand and the challenges of heartbreaks, fissures in friendships and crises within the family to deal with. Growing up is as much about accepting it all as a part of life and finding peace with your own perennially evolving self.

"I wish my adolescent self was kinder to myself. I wish I wasn't such a brat to my sister and my family. I really think of this movie as a thank-you-and-I'm-sorry-and-I-love-you to my family and my friends," said Sean at the film's premiere. It's precisely this that strikes an emotional chord. It's not tough to figure out how it has been such a crowd-pleaser in its limited run so far. There's a genuineness, authenticity and relatability to his protagonist. Didi would rather be skateboarding, fiddling with tech, the internet, the early social media and music of the day than spending time with his mother (Joan Chen), wondering about the curiously missing father, fighting with elder sister (Shirley Chen) and making peace with crotchety grandma Nai Nai (Chang Li Hua). Didi is someone the teens will see themselves in and he is also a reminder to the adults of their past, the formative years that have made them who they are now.

Sean directs with confidence and control; there's playfulness in his storytelling as well as an all-enveloping empathy and tenderness. The humour never goes over the top, nor do the emotional sequences turn cheesy or overly sentimental. Much of the film's strength derives from the precision and profundity of its writing but it's the ensemble cast of mostly first-time actors that makes things come alive on screen with realistic performances. Be it the times of harmony or ugly fights, love or dissension, together they feel like real family, friends, neighbours and community. You laugh with them just as you cry along with them.

In that sense, the film itself is a welcome addition to the resonant contemporary American immigrant sagas like Minari and Past Lives. But one with a unique indie charm of its own.
